Article III: The specific purpose for which this corporation is organized is:

This said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations described under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state, or local government, for a public purpose.

Article IV: Racially Nondiscriminatory Policy

The Amazing Hope Corporation will display a notice of its racially nondiscriminatory policy on its primary publicly accessible internet homepage at all times during the taxable year (excluding temporary outages due to website maintenance or technical problems) in a manner reasonably expected to be noticed by visitors to the homepage. The following notice, which is identical to the notice than may be used to satisfy the publicity requirement using a newspaper of general circulation that serves all racial segments of the community, is acceptable. The Amazing Hope Corporation admits students of any race, color, national, and ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. It does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national and ethnic origin in administration of its educational policies, admissions policies, scholarship and loan programs, and athletic and other school administered programs.

The date of each amendment(s) adoption: August 8, 2019, if other than the date this document was signed.

Effective date if applicable: August 8, 2019
(no more than 90 days after amendment file date)

Note: If the date inserted in this block does not meet the applicable statutory filing requirements, this date will not be listed as the document's effective date on the Department of State's records.
