Article VIII

Upon the dissolution of the Non-Profit Corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for payment of all of the liabilities of the Non-Profit Corporation, distribute all the remaining assets of the Non-Profit Corporation only for tax-exempt purposes to an such eligible organization or organizations (as hereinafter defined) as the board of directors shall determine. Any of such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the Superior Court of the county in which the principal office of the Non-Profit Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes, or to such eligible organization or organizations as said court shall determine. For purposes of this article, "eligible organization or organizations" refers to any organization or organizations that are tax-exempt under Section 50(c)(3), Internal Revenue Code, or described by Section 170(c)(1) or (2), Internal Revenue Code, as the board of directors shall determine. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, this organization shall not carry on, any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from Federal Income Tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law or by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article IX

No substantial part of the activities of the Non-Profit Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Non-Profit Corporation shall not participate or intervene in (including the publication or distribution or statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

The Non-Profit Corporation is not organized nor shall it be operated for the primary purpose of generating pecuniary gain or profit. The Non-Profit Corporation may not pay dividends or other corporate income to its directors or officers, or otherwise accrue distributable profits, or permit the realization of private gain. No part of the net earnings of the Non-Profit Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director of the Non-Profit Corporation, officer of the Non-Profit Corporation, or any private individual, (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the Non-Profit Corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no director or officer of the Non-Profit Corporation, or any private individual, shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Non-Profit Corporation.
