ARTICLE III

The purpose for which the corporation is formed and the business and the objects to be carried on and promoted by it, are as follows:

1. The purpose for which the corporation is organized are to receive and maintain real or personal property, or both, and subject to the restrictions and limitations hereinafter set forth, to use and apply the whole or any part of the income there from and the principal thereof exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific, literary or educational purposes either directly or by contributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organization under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and Regulations issued pursuant thereto as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended.
2. The main purpose for which the corporation is organized is to function as a Christian church and to perform all activities inherent to a Christian religious organization, such as making and receiving charitable contributions, teaching and preaching the Word of God, the bible, selling and distributing Christian publications, books and other forms of digital or written communications to promote the Christian faith, and to help people in their spiritual, emotional, and physical needs, among others.
3. To acquire and receive by purchase, donation or otherwise, any real, personal, or mixed property, and to hold, use and dispose of the same in furtherance of any or all of the objects and purposes of the corporation.
4. To borrow money and to issue evidences of indebtedness in furtherance of any or all of the objects of its business, and to secure loans by mortgage, pledge, deed of trust, or other lien.

5. To solicit funds and donations in kind to further the purposes of this corporation.
6. To apply for, obtain and contract with any federal, state or local government or agency for the direct loan or loans or other financial aid in the form of grants or otherwise relating to the purposes of this corporation.
7. To engage in any kind of activity, and to enter into, perform and carry out contracts of any kind, necessary or in connection with, or incidental to the accomplishment of any one or more of the non-profit purposes of the corporation.
8. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles of incorporation:
  - a. Not part of the earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any director or officer of the corporation or member of the corporation or any other private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes), and no director or officer of the corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation and the corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statement) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.
  - b. The corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by an organization exempt from taxation under Sections 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they now exist or as they may hereafter be amended, or by an organization which contributions are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code and its regulations as they exist now or as they may hereafter be amended.
  - c. Upon dissolution of the corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all the liabilities of the corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation in such manner, or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law and its Regulations) as the board of directors shall determine.
