Section 2. Specific Purpose

Just Live Free Enterprises, Inc. provides pre-employment training, on-the-job-training, supported employment and employment services for persons with special needs, disabilities and at-risk behaviors. This service specifically works with clients who are re-entering society, either as a Veteran or ex-offender as well as clients who are disadvantaged physically or mentally, who need assistance in finding and maintaining employment in the competitive market. This service includes working with the Department of Vocational Rehabilitation to train, and support clients who are at a disadvantage in finding employment, job placement, securing and maintaining employment. The Employment specialist works to build lasting relationships with the clients as well as with the businesses in the community, to fill in the job gaps and get clients into the workforce while building relationships within the community.

The specific objectives and purpose of this organization shall be:

- a. to provide pre-employment instruction in preparation for entering the workforce, such as basic skills needed to go to work, grooming habits, how to interview, and expectations for finding / keeping a job to persons with special needs, disabilities and or at-risk behaviors;
- b. to provide supported employment to clients who need assistance learning a job as well as building natural supports to facilitate and promote a healthy work environment for both the client and the employer;
- c. to provide employment services for clients who just need assistance getting back into the workforce who may need help interviewing and being offered an opportunity for employment;
- d. to provide opportunities for clients to prepare, seek, interview and accept employment as well as have an advisor who will assist in every way possible to get clients ready and able to accept responsibility, to become employed, get on their feet and just live free.
