The qualification of members, the voting rights of members and the manner of their admission shall be as follows:

5.1 This Corporation shall be organized without any capital stock.

5.3 The member(s) who own each unit shall collectively be entitled to cast one (1) vote. The votes of a unit shall not be divided or cumulated. Voting rights shall be exercised in accordance with the provisions of these Articles and the By-Laws of the Association.

5.4 Membership in the Association shall be established by the following methods:

(a) The Developer shall be the member of the Association representing all of the units and shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges accompanying such membership until each such unit is sold by the Developer to the unit owner. In connection therewith, the Developer shall assign to the unit owner its membership in the Association for that unit.

(b) The unit owners shall become members of the Association upon the recording in the Public Records of Pinellas County, Florida, of a deed or other instrument establishing a change of record title to a Condominium parcel, the new owner designated by such instrument thereby becoming a member of the Association, and the membership of the Developer or the prior owner representing that unit shall at that time be terminated.

5.5 Membership in the Association may be transferred by the Developer or unit owner only as an appurtenance to the owner's Condominium parcel in connection with the transfer of the same.

ARTICLE 6

DIRECTORS

6.1 The business of the Association shall be conducted by a Board of Directors consisting of three (3) Directors. Directors do not need to be members of the Association.

6.2 The Directors shall serve a term of one (1) year or until the election of their successors. The Directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of the members of the Association.

6.3 Until unit owners other than the Developer own fifteen percent (15%) or more of the units in the Condominium that will be operated ultimately by the Association, the Developer shall be entitled to elect all the Directors. The unit owners other than the Developer shall be entitled to elect at least a majority of the members of the Board of Directors upon the first to occur of any of the following events:

(b) Three (3) months after ninety percent (90%) of the units that will be operated ultimately by the Association have been conveyed to purchasers;

(c) When all the units that will be operated ultimately by the Association have been completed, some of them have been conveyed to purchasers, and none of the others are being offered for sale by the Developer in the ordinary course of business;

(d) When some of the units have been conveyed to purchasers and none of the others are being constructed or offered for sale by the Developer in the ordinary course of business;

(e) When the Developer files a petition seeking protection in bankruptcy;

(f) When a receiver for the Developer is appointed by the Circuit Court and is not discharged within thirty (30) days after such appointment, unless the court determines within thirty (30) days after appointment of the receiver that transfer of control would be detrimental to the Association or its members; or

(g) Seven (7) years after the date of the recording of the certificate of a surveyor and mapper pursuant to Section 718.104(4)(e), Florida Statutes, or the recording of an instrument that transfers title to a unit in the Condominium which is not accompanied by a recorded assignment of developer rights in favor of the grantee of such unit, whichever occurs first.

The Developer shall be entitled to elect at least one (1) member of the Board of Directors of the Association as long as the Developer holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least five percent (5%) of the units in the Condominium.
