ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

Lauryn Brown Foundation, Inc

A NON-PROFIT CORPORATION

The undersigned incorporator, in order to form a non-profit corporation under the laws of the state of Florida, adopts the following Articles of Incorporation: The Corporation is organized in compliance with Chapter 617, F.S., (Not for Profit)

ONE: The name and address of this corporation is

Lauryn Brown Foundation, Inc 3821 Castleberry Drive Tallahassee Florida 32303

TWO: The name and address of the registered agent and offices of this corporation is:

Marissa Batie-Collier 3821 Castleberry Drive Tallahassee Florida 32303

THREE: The specific purposes for which this corporation is organized are:

1. This corporation is organized exclusively for one or more of the purposes as specified in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

2. Subject to the foregoing provisions and in furtherance of its express purposes, the corporation has the following objectives:

The charitable purposes of the Corporation include, but are not limited to the following:

Lauryn Brown graduated from Godby High School after completing four years of high school in only two years and graduated from college at the age of 19 and is now enrolling in medical school. Her desire is to inspire and assist others to pursue their dreams and contribute to their communities. Lauryn Brown Foundation, Inc primary charitable purpose is to inspire other youth to reach their full potential by finding their personal niche in the community, thereby impacting the world with strong leadership skills, academic excellence and financial literacy. We will develop a mentorship program aimed to provide vital exposure to the field of education as well as convey various viable career options for minority high school students. Purpose: To increase student's knowledge and provide opportunities that will encourage high school students to pursue higher education and careers in other disciplines. Objective: To increase the number of minority college students who can address educational disparities seen among at risk populations and underserved communities. Target Participants: Minority high school students (9-12th grade). Participant Gains: Participants will gain real life exposure through shadowing, experience networking opportunities with professionals, participate in college preparation activities, e.g. assistance with college application process, essay writing, and interview skills, and assistance seeking and obtaining college scholarships.

Additional purposes/objectives are to develop a nonprofit organization dedicated to delivering, coordinating and advocating for the quality outreach that all citizens and persons in underserved communities need to experience healthful lives where they are. We are a nonprofit organization dedicated to expanding and transforming underserved communities to improve outcomes and reduce disparities. We endeavor to work with local schools, community and organizations across the region, including community health centers, hospitals, private practices, foundations, financial institutions, primary care associations and large healthcare systems to achieve high impact, transformative results. We promote the healthy development of the community by serving the people, institutions and communities that impact their well-being. We provide information for underserved populations. Today, our nonprofit aims to empower individuals and families living in poor communities so that they are able to create their own solutions to improve their own health and development.

Our Vision

We envision a world in which individuals, families and communities have the hope and capacity to build conditions that promote Total Health. Total Health is the capacity of individuals, families and communities to work together to transform the conditions that promote, in a sustainable way, their physical, emotional, economic, social, environmental and spiritual well being. We maintain an affirmed commitment to diversity and equal opportunity in the fulfillment of our mission and offer services to all people, regardless of their religion, gender, race, nationality or ethnic background.
