2. The following amendment to the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation was unanimously adopted and approved by the Board of Directors, by written consent in lieu of a special meeting, dated September 30, 2024. There are no members of the Corporation.

3. ARTICLE III of the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation is hereby amended in its entirety to read as follows:

ARTICLE III – PURPOSES

A. The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, religious and scientific purposes, including, for such exempt purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under §501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding provision of any future federal tax code ("Code").

B. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, the Corporation's sponsors, organizers, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the exempt purposes set forth in this Article. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publication or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.

C. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by (i) a corporation exempt from federal income tax under §501(c)(3) of the Code, or (ii) a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under §170(c)(2) of the Code.

D. Without limiting the foregoing, the Corporation's charitable and other exempt purposes, missions and objectives include the following:

- (i) to assist in the recovery and rehabilitation of persons who have been or may be subject to criminal justice sanctions in order to make them self-supporting and useful and responsible citizens who can better contribute to the communities in which they work and live;
- (ii) to assist persons who may have suffered social compatibility problems or other experienced mental well-being issues and who are attempting to recover and transition to a normal life-style and daily routine;
- (iii) to help persons who have experienced alcohol or drug dependency problems find access to other charities and or publically available organizations that can provide the professional advice and care they may require, or help them procure the other resources they may need to enable them to take the recovery steps intended to transition them to a fully independent existence in society, or at least less dependent on their families or government welfare institutions;
- (iv) to provide recovery residential assistance and associated wrap-around and other social or welfare services focused on assisting tenants or other residents of affordable housing properties (including affordable housing projects managed by One Stop Housing, LLC) in a safe, sober, drug free and supervised healthy environment;
- (v) to assist with the transitional housing needs and social, rehabilitative and welfare services for individuals and families who are impoverished, underprivileged, or otherwise distressed or disadvantaged, including providing residential space, shelter and/or daily or other routine supervision services to assist them in living fruitful lives;

- (vi) to assist poor and distressed persons, including by helping them find access to low-income and other affordable housing, with the objective of helping them attain that goal and have the means to afford other necessities of life without undue hardship;
- (vii) to combat community deterioration by assisting disadvantaged persons procure affordable and safe housing in blighted or depressed neighborhoods and/or government sectors that are undergoing urban renewal or other redevelopment with plans to assist persons living in those areas;
- (viii) to lessen the burdens of local, state, and federal government agencies to participate in public support;
- (ix) to eliminate discrimination and prejudice by assisting certain families purchase homes for the purpose of stabilizing an integrated neighborhood and/or assisting in the construction of new housing available for members of minority groups with low and moderate incomes who are unable to obtain adequate housing because of discrimination;
