ARTICLE V MEMBERS

5.1 The Association shall initially have two classes of membership, which shall be determined by and shall be subject to the following:

5.1.1 Class "A" Members. Every Owner (including, but not limited to and without limitation, the Declarant with respect to the Units it owns) shall be a Member of the Association. There shall be only one (1) Member per Unit. If a Unit is owned by more than one (1) Person, all co-Owners shall share the privilege of such membership as a single Member, subject to reasonable Board regulation and the restrictions on voting set forth in the Declaration, these Articles, and the Bylaws, and all such co-Owners shall be jointly and severally obligated to perform the responsibilities of Owners.

The membership rights and privileges of an Owner who is a natural person may be exercised by the Owner or the Owner's lawful spouse. The membership rights of an Owner which is not a natural person may be exercised by any director, officer, partner, or trustee, or by any other individual designated from time to time by the Owner in a written instrument provided to the Association's Secretary.

5.1.2 Class "B" Member. The sole Class "B" Member shall be the Declarant. The Class "B" membership shall terminate upon the expiration or earlier termination of the Declarant's Control Period, or when in its discretion the Class "B" Member earlier so determines and declares such termination in an instrument recorded in the County's official public records. Upon termination of the Class "B" membership, the Declarant shall remain a Class "A" Member with respect to the Units it owns (if any) and shall be entitled to Class "A" votes for all Units which it owns (if any).

5.2 Transfer of Class "A" Membership. Transfer of Class "A" Membership in the Association shall be established by the recording in the County's official public records of a deed or other instrument establishing a transfer of record title to any Unit for which membership has already been established. The Owner designated by such instrument of conveyance thereby becomes a Member, and the prior Member's membership thereby is terminated. In the event of death of a Member, her/his membership shall be automatically transferred to her/his heirs or successors in interest. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Association shall not be obligated to recognize a transfer of membership until such time as the Association receives a true copy of the recorded deed or other instrument establishing the transfer of ownership of the Unit, and it shall be the responsibility and obligation of the former and the new Owner of the Unit to provide such true copy of said recorded instrument to the Association.

ARTICLE VI VOTING RIGHTS

6.1 Number of Votes. Members' voting rights shall be determined based on the number of Assessment Units allocated to each Unit owned by such Members as more specifically set forth in the Assessment and Voting Formula in Exhibit "F" to the Declaration, as it may be amended from time to time.

6.2 Voting by Co-Owners. If a Unit is owned by more than one (1) Person, all co-Owners shall share the voting privileges of such membership as a single member, subject to reasonable Board regulation and the restrictions on voting set forth in these Articles in and in the Bylaws.

6.3 Proxies. Except as otherwise specifically set forth in the Declaration or these Articles, every Member of the Association that is entitled to vote at a meeting of the Members or to otherwise express consent or dissent without a meeting, may authorize another person to act on the Member's behalf by a proxy signed by such Member. Directors may not vote by proxy.

Any proxy shall: be in writing; be dated; specify the Unit(s) for which it is given; state the date, time, and place of the meeting for which it is given; be signed by the Member or her/his duly authorized attorney-in-fact; and be provided to the Association's Secretary, or the person acting as Secretary at the meeting, at or prior to the time designated in the order of business for so delivering such proxies. A proxy is only effective for the specific meeting and/or vote for which it was given, and as the meeting and/or vote may law fully be reconvened from time to time. However, a proxy automatically expires ninety (90) calendar days after the original date of the meeting and/or vote for which it was given; unless a shorter period is specified in the proxy. Unless otherwise specifically provided for in the proxy, a proxy shall be presumed to cover all votes which the Member giving such proxy is entitled to cast for the specified Unit(s), and in the event of any conflict between two (2) or more proxies purporting to cover the same voting rights, the later dated proxy shall prevail, or if dated as of the same date, both proxies shall be deemed invalid.

Every proxy shall be freely revocable by the Member executing it at any time prior to the specific meeting and/or vote for which it was given, and shall automatically cease upon: (a) receipt by the Secretary of written notice of revocation of the proxy, (b) conveyance of any Unit for which it was given, (c) the death of the Member giving the proxy, (d) the judicially declared incompetence of a Member who is a natural person, and/or (e) ninety (90) calendar days after the original date of the meeting and/or vote for which it was given.

6.4 Calculation of Votes. Any question concerning the number of votes which may be cast by a Member shall be decided by a majority of the Board.

ARTICLE VII BOARD OF DIRECTORS

7.1 Members of the Board. The Association's affairs shall be managed by a Board consisting of not less than three (3) members, but not more than five (5) members, and which shall always be an odd number. The number of Board seats shall be determined in accordance with the Bylaws. In the absence of such determination, there shall be three (3) Board members. Board members shall be appointed, elected, or removed as follows:

7.1.1 Appointed by the Declarant. During the Declarant's Control Period, (i) the Board shall consist of three (3) members and (ii) the Declarant shall initially have the right to appoint all Board members (in Declarant's sole and absolute discretion) and such Board members shall serve at the pleasure of the Declarant. During the Declarant's Control period, but after fifty percent (50%) of the Total Property is owned by Class "A" Members other than the Declarant, the Class "A" Members shall be entitled to elect one (1) Board member previously allocated to the Declarant for appointment pursuant to the procedures provided in the Bylaws. After the Declarant's Control Period ends, so long as Declarant and/or its affiliates holds for sale in the ordinary course of business at least five percent (5%) of the Total Property, Declarant shall have the right (in its sole and absolute discretion) to appoint the maximum number of director seat(s) that constitute a minority of the Board (i.e. half of the total Board seats then in existence, less one seat). Any directors appointed by the Declarant may, but need not, be Owners.

7.1.2 Election of the Board. Elections for Board members pursuant to the procedures provided in the Bylaws shall only occur for seats which the Class "A" Members are entitled to elect. Any seats which are subject to appointment by the Declarant shall remain subject to the Declarant's appointment unless and until the Declarant voluntarily releases (in Declarant's sole and absolute discretion) such seats to election by the Class "A" Members.

7.1.3 Removal from the Board. Removals and vacancy appointments of Board members pursuant to the procedures provided in the Bylaws shall only occur for seats which the Class "A" Members are entitled to elect. Any seats which are subject to appointment by the Declarant shall remain subject to the Declarant's removal and vacancy appointment unless and until the Declarant voluntarily releases (in Declarant's sole and absolute discretion) such seats to election by the Class "A" Members.

7.2 Exercise of Duties and Powers. All of the duties and powers of the Association existing under Chapters 617 & 718, Fla. Stat., the Declaration, these Articles, the Bylaws, the Use Restrictions, Rules, and Regulations, and the Design Review Manual, shall be exercised exclusively by the Board (its directors, officers, committee members, and/or members of a board appointed by the Board) and shall only be subject to approval by the Members when expressly required under the Declaration or Statutes.

7.3 Initial Board Members. The names and addresses of Board members who shall hold office until they are removed or their successors are elected are:

ARTICLE VIII OFFICERS

8.1 The business of the Association shall be conducted by the officers designated in the Bylaws. The officers shall be elected each year by the Board of Directors at its first meeting after the annual meeting of the members of the Association, and they shall serve at the pleasure of the Board.

ARTICLE IX INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

9.1 Indemnification and Defense of Directors, Officers, and other Agents of the Board. As limited in this §9.1, the Association shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless any Person from and against any liability, when the Person was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party, to any contemplated, pending, or threatened action or proceeding (whether civil or criminal) by reason of the fact that such Person is or was the Association's: director, officer, committee member, member of a subordinate board, and/or direct employee (expressly meaning to exclude any agents hired by the Association to perform services and/or provide goods, e.g., a management company and its employees). Such Persons shall not be personally liable for any mistake of judgment - negligent or otherwise - or with respect to any contract or other commitment made or action taken, which was made in good faith on behalf of the Association, and the Association shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless such Persons from any liability and reasonable expenses actually incurred which results from such conduct. This indemnity, defense, and hold harmless obligation includes all costs, expenses, and fees incurred by the Person incident to an action or proceeding, but not limited to and without limitation: (a) damages claimed against the Person; (b) fines levied against the Person; (c) judgments entered against the Person; (d) reasonable Attorneys' Fees and Costs; and (e) settlement amounts actually and reasonably incurred by the Person (provided the Association was given reasonable written notice of, an opportunity to participate in, the settlement). For any civil action or proceeding, this indemnity, defense, and hold harmless obligation only applies if the Person's alleged conduct was performed in good faith and in a manner the Person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the Association. For any criminal action or proceeding, this indemnity, defense, and hold harmless obligation only applies if either: the Person is adjudicated not guilty; the Person had no reasonable cause to believe the alleged conduct was unlawful; or upon such Person being adjudicated guilty of gross negligence (or an equivalent or lesser mens rea) in the performance of the Person's duty to the Association, then only to the extent the Board determines that despite the guilty adjudication in view of all the circumstances of the case such Person should fairly and reasonably be indemnified (and in such cases only for such expenses which the Board shall deem proper). This indemnity, defense, and hold harmless obligation only applies to the extent the Person remains personally liable, and shall be deemed waived if the Person fails to participate in good faith in the defense of the liability (e.g. waiver will occur if the Person enters into any agreement whereby the Person seeks to limit and/or avoid her/his own personal liability in a manner adverse to the Association's interests). This indemnity, defense, and hold harmless obligation shall not be construed to require the Association to reimburse any insurance company or surety claiming subrogation for any fees and/or costs incurred in defending the Person under an insurance policy or bond.

9.2 Advances Under A Reservation of Rights. Any costs, expenses, and fees incurred pursuant to this Article IX in defending any Person in a civil or criminal action or proceeding which are expended by the Association under a reservation of rights and in advance of the final disposition of such action or proceeding, shall be reimbursed by the Person to the Association if a Court ultimately determines that the Person was not entitled to defense and/or indemnification of the subject action or proceeding pursuant this Article IX.

9.3 Non-Exclusivity and Survival. The indemnification, defense, and hold harmless rights provided by this Article IX shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under the Applicable Law, Declaration, Bylaws, any agreement, or otherwise. The indemnification, defense, and hold harmless rights provided by this Article IX shall: (a) continue as to any Person who has ceased to hold the position, but only for claims, causes of action, and/or other such liabilities which accrued during the period in which s/he held the position; and (b) shall inure to the benefit of the administrators, executors, and/or heirs of such Person to the same extent as would otherwise be held by the Person if still alive.

9.4 Insurance. The Association shall have the power (but not the obligation) to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Person who is or was a director, officer, committee member, member of a subordinate board, and/or agent or employee of the Association, or is or was serving at the request of the Association as a director, officer, committee member, member of a subordinate board, and/or agent or employee of another corporation, joint venture, partnership, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against the Person arising out of any such capacity – regardless of whether the Association would have the obligation or power to indemnify the Person against such liability under the provisions of this Article IX.

9.5 Amendments. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Articles, the provisions of this Article IX may not be amended and/or supplemented without the prior written consent of all Members whose interest would be adversely affected by such amendment and/or supplement.

9.6 Indemnity, Defense, and Hold Harmless by Owners. Each Owner shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Association (and its directors, officers, committee members, members of subordinate boards, and/or agents and employees) from and against any damages, expenses, and other liabilities which they may incur as a result of such Owner's (and/or its Permittees') failure to comply with the Association's Governing Documents, including but not limited to and without limitation: (a) any incurred costs and fees for third-parties to investigate and/or correct the violation, (b) reasonable Attorneys' Fees and Costs; and (c) reasonable administrative fees of the Declarant.

ARTICLE X BYLAWS

10.1 The initial Bylaws of the Association shall be adopted by the Board and may be altered, amended, and/or rescinded in the manner provided by the Bylaws.

ARTICLE XI
INCOME DISTRIBUTION

11.1 No part of the income of the Association shall be distributable to its directors, Members, or officers, except as commercially reasonable compensation for services rendered.

ARTICLE XII
AMENDMENTS

12.1 Amendments. Amendments to these Articles shall be proposed and adopted in the following manner:

12.1.1 Initiation. A resolution to amend these Articles may be proposed by a majority of the members of the Board, or by Members representing not less than ten percent (10%) of the total Class "A" votes in the Association.

12.1.2 Notice. Notice of the subject matter of a proposed amendment to these Articles shall be included in the notice for any meeting at which a proposed amendment is considered.

12.1.3 Adoption.

- (a) During the Declarant's Control Period, the Declarant shall have the right to unilaterally amend these Articles without the joinder or approval of any member of the Board or any Member. No amendment to these Articles shall be effective without the written approval of the Declarant during the Declarant's Control Period.
- (b) After the Declarant's Control Period expires or earlier terminates, a resolution by the Board for the adoption of a proposed amendment to these Articles shall be adopted by the affirmative vote and/or written consent of Members representing greater than fifty-percent (50%) of the total Class "A" votes in the Association.
- (c) No amendment shall make any changes in the qualification for membership, in the voting rights and/or property rights of Members, or of this Article XII, without the approval of all Members affected by such amendment (and where required by the Florida Condominium Act, the joinder of all record owners of mortgages upon any portion of a Condominium).

12.1.4 Recording. Upon the approval of an amendment to these Articles, the amendment shall be executed and delivered to the Florida Secretary of State as provided by law, and a copy certified by the Secretary of State shall be recorded in the County's official public records as a Supplement to the Declaration.

13.1 The Association shall exist perpetually, unless voluntarily dissolved by the Members according to the Declaration and Applicable Law.
