ARTICLE II

TYPE OF FILING ENTITY

The filing entity is a nonprofit corporation with the State of Florida

ARTICLE III

PURPOSES

The objects and purposes for which the Corporation is organized, and the powers which it may exercise in furtherance thereof, are as follows:

The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes (or any combination thereof) within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, and the Regulations promulgated thereunder (the "Code"). Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Corporation will engage in ministry activities to shape people with a gospel identity and foster long-term relationships with Greek life students. The Corporation may promote and advance such purposes by any activity in which a corporation organized under the Nonprofit Corporation Law may

MEMBERS

The Corporation shall have no members or shareholders and shall not issue any shares of stock or certificates or any evidence of membership.

ARTICLE VII

DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, after paying or making provision for the payment of all liabilities and obligations of the Corporation then outstanding and unpaid, the board of directors shall distribute the assets of the Corporation exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, in such manner as the board of directors shall determine. Any assets not so distributed shall be distributed to one or more governmental units described under Section 170(C)(1) of the Code, or to one or more organizations described under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and Section 170(c) (2) of the Code, as the board of directors shall determine.

ARTICLE VIII

PROHIBITED ACTIVITIES

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation, no part of the earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any director, officer or other person holding a position of influence with the Corporation, or to any private individual (except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the benefit of the Corporation in connection with the accomplishment of one or more of its stated charitable purposes), and no director or officer of the Corporation, or any private individual shall be entitled to share in the distribution of any of the corporate assets on dissolution of the Corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of for the private advantage or pecuniary profit of any director or officer thereof or permit the operation of the Corporation for any purpose other than the purposes described in Article III hereof.

ARTICLE XII

INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

In amplification and not in limitation of the provisions of applicable law:

(a) All non-compensated directors, officers and other volunteers of the Corporation shall be immune from suit and shall not be subject to civil liability arising from the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation except when the act or omission of such person that gives rise to the cause of action amounts to willful or wanton misconduct or fraud or gross negligence.

The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed claim, action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, including appeals (other than an action by or in the right of the Corporation), by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director or officer of the Corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him or her in connection with such claim, action, suit or proceeding, unless he or she acted intentionally or willfully against the best interests of the Corporation. The termination of any claim, action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person acted intentionally or willfully in a manner that was opposed to the best interests of the Corporation.

The Corporation shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed claim, action or suit by or in the right of not entitled to be indemnified by the Corporation as authorized in this Article XII. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited, unsecured general obligation of the director or officer of the Corporation and shall be accepted without reference to his or her ability to make repayment. The indemnification authorized by this Article XII shall not be deemed exclusive of and shall be in addition to any other rights to which those indemnified may be entitled under any statute, rule of law, provision of articles or certificate of incorporation, bylaws, agreement, vote of disinterested directors or otherwise, both as to action in his or her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director or officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a person. No amendment, modification, or repeal of this Article XII shall diminish the right to indemnification with respect to any claim, cause, or matter in any then pending or subsequent proceeding that is based in any material respect on any alleged action or failure to act prior to such amendment, modification or repeal.

(g) The Corporation shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of against any liability asserted against him or her and incurred by him or her in any such capacity or arising out of his or her status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him or her against such liability under the provisions of this Article XII.

(h) There shall be no personal or individual liability of any director or officer for any debts, liabilities or obligations of the Corporation of any kind whatsoever.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned, acting as the sole organizer of Impulse Ministries, adopts and signs these Articles of Incorporation on this 9th day of April, 2021.
