ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

MAS OF CENTRAL FLORIDA CHAPTER INC

The undersigned Ibrahim Zeini acting as incorporator of a corporation under the Florida Not For Profit Corporations Act adopts the following articles of incorporation:

Article I: Name

The name of the corporation is MAS OF CENTRAL FLORIDA CHAPTER INC.

Article II: Religious Not For Profit Corporation

The corporation is organized exclusively as a church for charitable, religious, and educational purposes including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article III: Duration

The corporation shall have perpetual duration, unless properly dissolved according to the Articles of Incorporation and/or Bylaws.

Article IV: Tax Exemption Requirements

- (a) The corporation is organized and operated exclusively for the purposes set forth herein.
- (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- (c) No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements on behalf of any candidate for public office).

Article V: Restrictions on Private Foundations

Notwithstanding any other provision in these Articles, if this corporation is deemed or determined to be a "private foundation" within the meaning of section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code, then this corporation shall be subject to the following limitations and restrictions:

- (a) The corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(b) The corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(c) The corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(d) The corporation shall not make any investment in such manner as to subject it to tax under section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(e) The corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article VI: Members

The corporation shall have a membership distinct from the Board of Directors. The authorized number and qualifications of the members of the corporation; the manner of their admission; the different classes of membership, if any; the property, voting, and other rights and privileges of members, and their liability for dues and assessments and the method of collection thereof; shall be set forth in the bylaws. The corporation shall be nonstock and no dividends or pecuniary profits shall be declared or inure to the members. There shall be no personal liability of members for corporate obligations.

Article VII: Registered Office and Agent

The street address of the initial registered office of the corporation is: 522 Lake Mary Road, Sanford, Florida 32773. The name of the original registered agent at such address is Ibrahim Z. Gini.

Article VIII: Board of Directors

The powers of this corporation shall be exercised, its property controlled, and its affairs conducted by a Board of Directors. The number of directors of the corporation shall be at minimum three provided, however, that the number of directors can be changed by a bylaw duly adopted pursuant to the bylaws of this corporation. Powers and Responsibilities of Directors are set forth in by-laws adopted by the initial Board of Directors.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting if all the members of the Board individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceeding of the Board. Such action by written consent will have the same force and effect as if taken by unanimous vote of the directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of law relating to actions so taken must state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the Board of Directors without a meeting and that the articles of incorporation added to, or new bylaws may be adopted either by a resolution of the Board of Directors or by following the procedures set forth for such action in the bylaws.

Article XII: Property and Profits

The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to the purposes set forth in Article III herein and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer or member thereof or to the benefit of any private person, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose or purposes set forth in Article III herein.

Article XIII: Distribution Upon Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, its assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purpose(s) within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Upon dissolution of the corporation and after paying or making provisions for payment of all liabilities of the corporation, and in furtherance of the purposes of the corporation, all assets shall be distributed to MAS-National, a non for profit, charitable, and religious federally tax exempt organization under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, providing MAS-National agrees to use such assets to further the goals of the corporation. If MAS--National does not exist at the time of the corporation's dissolution, no longer qualifies as a federally tax exempt organization or declines to accept such assets, then corporation's assets shall be distributed to a federally tax exempt, not for profit, and charitable Islamic organization which shall agree to use such assets to further the corporation's goals. Names of such organizations and assets amounts distributed shall be as specified by the Board.

Article XIV: Amendments

Amendments to these articles of Incorporation may be proposed by a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors and presented to a quorum of members for their vote. Amendments may be adopted by a vote of 2/3 of a quorum of members of the corporation.

Article XV: Limited Liability of Directors and Officers

The officers and directors shall not be individually liable for the corporation's debts or liabilities, and the private property of such individuals shall be exempt from any corporate debts or liabilities. The power of indemnification under the laws of Florida shall not be denied or limited by the bylaws.
