ARTICLE 5
NONPROFIT PURPOSES

The Corporation is a nonprofit ecclesiastical corporation organized exclusively for religious, charitable, educational, literary, and scientific purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Corporation's purposes also include the limited participation of the Corporation in any other activities, including taxable activities, but only to the extent the activities would be permitted by a tax-exempt organization. More particularly, the purposes of this Corporation are:

- (a) To carry out the Great Commission: "Then Jesus came to them and said, 'All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age.'" (Matthew 28:18-20, New International Version).
- (b) To establish, operate, and maintain a church for the worship of Almighty God, our Heavenly Father, and the holding of church services in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- (c) To bear witness to the Christian truths, especially those relating to the deeper Christian life.
- (d) To spread the gospel of Jesus Christ, help spiritual seekers become transformed believers, and demonstrate the love and compassion of Christ to the world, through humanitarian works and social engagement.
- (e) To provide for Christian fellowship for those of like precious faith, where the Holy Ghost may be honored according to our distinctive testimony.
- (f) To establish and operate a charitable, benevolent, religious, eleemosynary, patriotic, civic, missionary and educational organization for the purpose of teaching of the Bible or Bible-related topics in, without limitation, schools, college or university campuses, and other public or private venues; conducting, without limitation, seminars, classes, camps, revivals, retreats and other presentations for purposes of teaching, preaching or otherwise communicating the gospel, Bible and Bible-related topics; preparing and distributing literature, visual and audio communications, and materials for the furtherance of the gospel, Bible and Bible-related topics; and otherwise promoting and furthering the gospel, Bible and Bible-related topics.
- (g) To promote the Christian religion by any appropriate form of expression, within any available medium, and in any location, through the Corporation's combined or separate formation, of a church, ministry, charity, school, or eleemosynary institution, without limitation.
- (h) To collect and disburse any and all necessary funds for the maintenance of said Corporation and the accomplishment of its purposes within the State of Florida and elsewhere.
- (i) To make distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

- (j) To promote, encourage, and foster any other similar charitable, religious, educational, and scientific activities; to accept, hold, invest, reinvest, and administer any gifts, legacies, bequests, devises, funds, and property of any sort or nature, and to use, expend, or donate the income or principal thereof for, and to devote the same to, the foregoing purposes of the Corporation; and to do any and all lawful acts and things which may be necessary, useful, suitable, or proper for the furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation.
- (k) To exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon nonprofit corporations and by Section 50(c)(3) of the Code, including, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, to acquire by donation, contribution, bequest, devise, gift, purchase, lease, or otherwise any property of any sort or nature, without limitation, as to its amount or value, and to hold, reinvest, manage, use, apply, employ, sell, expend, disburse, lease, mortgage, convey, option, donate, or otherwise dispose of such property and the income, principal, and proceeds of such property for any of the purposes set forth herein without the necessity of authorization or approval of any individual or entity whatsoever save and except as provided in the Articles of Incorporation and the Bylaws of the Corporation.
- (l) To do such other things as are incidental to the purposes of the Corporation or are necessary or desirable in order to accomplish them.

ARTICLE 6

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Plenary power to manage and govern the affairs of the Corporation shall be vested in the Board of Directors. The qualifications, duties, terms, and other matters relating to the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be provided in the Bylaws. The Board of Directors may vest management responsibility for selected matters in committees, officers, offices, and employees of the Corporation, as deemed appropriate from time to time.

The number of members on the Board of Directors shall not be less than three (3). The number of members on the Board of Directors may be increased or decreased, by amending these Articles of Incorporation, or by amending the Bylaws, provided that the number shall not be less than three (3).

The initial Directors are Dr. A. R. Bernard, Jamaal Bernard, Jim Halek, Larry Weiss, and John Binkley, and their initial address is 3030 N. Rocky Point Drive, Suite 650, Tampa, Florida 33607.

ARTICLE 7

MEMBERS

The Corporation shall have no members, save and except for the members of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 8

POWERS

Except as otherwise provided in these Articles of Incorporation, and in order to carry out the above-stated purposes, the Corporation shall have all of the powers provided in the Act, as it now exists or as it may hereafter be amended. Moreover, the Corporation shall have all implied powers necessary and proper to carry out its express powers.

ARTICLE 9

RESTRICTIONS, REQUIREMENTS, AND LIMITATIONS

The powers of the Corporation to promote the purposes set out above are limited and restricted in the following manner:

The Corporation shall not pay dividends or other corporate income to its members of the Board of Directors or officers or otherwise accrue distributable profits or permit the realization of private gain, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to make payments and distributions (including reasonable compensation for services rendered to or for the Corporation) in furtherance of its purposes as set forth in these Articles of Incorporation. The Corporation shall have no power to take any action prohibited by the Act. The Corporation shall not have the power to engage in any activities, except to an insubstantial degree, that are not in furtherance of the purposes set forth above. The Corporation shall have no power to take any action that would be inconsistent with the requirements for a tax exemption under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations, rulings, and procedures. The Corporation shall have no power to take any action that would be inconsistent with the requirements for receiving tax-deductible charitable contributions under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations, rulings, and procedures. Regardless of any other provision in these Articles of Incorporation or state law, the Corporation shall have no power to:

- (a) Engage in activities or use its assets in manners that are not in furtherance of one or more exempt purposes, as set forth above and defined by the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations, rulings, and procedures, except to an insubstantial degree.
- (b) Serve a private interest other than one that is clearly incidental to an overriding public interest.
- (c) Devote more than an insubstantial part of its activities to attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise, except as provided by the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations, rulings, and procedures.
- (d) Participate in or intervene in any political campaign or on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. The prohibited activities include the publishing or distributing of statements and any other direct or indirect campaign activities.
- (e) Have objectives that characterize it as an "action organization" as defined by the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations, rulings, and procedures.
