GLOBAL COCREATION LAB, INC.

In Compliance with Chapter 617, F.S. (Corporations Not for Profit)

ARTICLE IX: ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

(a). Restrictions on Activities

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of the corporation. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting, to influence legislation, and the corporation shall neither participate nor intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

(b). Indemnification

The corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by Florida law, indemnify each person who may serve or who has served at any time as an officer or director of the corporation against all expenses and liabilities, including, without limitation, counsel fees, judgments, fines, excise taxes, penalties and settlement payments, reasonably incurred by or imposed upon such person in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding in which he or she may become involved by reason of his or her service in such capacity; provided that no indemnification shall be provided for any such person with respect to any matter as to which he or she shall have been finally adjudicated in any proceeding not to have acted in good faith in the reasonable belief that such action was in the best interests of the corporation; and further provided that any compromise or settlement payment shall be approved by a majority vote of a quorum of directors who are not at that time parties to the proceeding.

To the extent permitted by Florida law, the corporation may, but shall not be required to, provide such indemnification to any person who may serve or who has served at any time as an employee, volunteer, or other agent of the corporation.

The right to indemnification conferred in this Article shall include the right to the advancement of reasonable expenses to persons entitled to indemnification hereunder. The indemnification provided hereunder shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of persons entitled to indemnification. The right of indemnification under this Article shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which any person may be entitled.

This Article constitutes a contract between the corporation and the persons entitled to indemnification hereunder. No amendment or repeal of the provisions of this Article which adversely affects the right of a person entitled to indemnification hereunder shall apply to such person with respect to those acts or omissions which occurred at any time prior to such amendment or repeal.

(c). Limitation on Personal Liability

No officer or director of the corporation shall be personally liable for monetary damages to any person for any statement, vote, decision, or failure to take an action, regarding organizational management or policy unless: (a) the officer or director breached or failed to perform his or her duties as an officer or director; and (b) the officer or director's breach of, or failure to perform, his or her duties constitutes: (1) a violation of the criminal law, unless the officer or director had reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was lawful or had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful; (2) a transaction from which the officer or director derived an improper personal benefit, directly or indirectly; or (3) recklessness or an act or omission that was committed in bad faith or with malicious purpose or in a manner exhibiting wanton and willful disregard of human rights, safety, or property.

(d). Dissolution

The dissolution of the corporation may be authorized at a meeting of the board of directors by a majority vote of the directors then in office. In the event of dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation to the extent assets of the corporation permit, dispose of all the assets of the corporation exclusively for the purposes of the corporation, as the board of directors shall determine, in such manner as required by section 501(c)(3) of the Code and in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida.

(e). Members

If the corporation shall have one or more classes of members, the designation of such classes, the manner of election or appointments, the duration of membership and the qualification and rights, including voting rights, of the members of each class, may be set forth in the bylaws of the corporation.
