Article 3. Purpose

The Church is organized for Faith-based purposes. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for service rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its purpose. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Certificate, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article 9. Dissolution.

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, after all liabilities and obligations are paid, satisfied, and discharged, the property of the corporation shall be applied and distributed as follows:

- (1) property held by the corporation on a condition requiring return, transfer, or conveyance because of the winding up or termination shall be returned, transferred, or conveyed in accordance with that requirement; and
- (2) the remaining property shall be distributed for one or more exempt purpose within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article 10. Amendment.

An amendment to this organization must be submitted to a vote of the members in a regular or special meeting. Notice containing the proposed amendment or a summary of the changes to be effected by the amendment shall be given to the members within the time and in the manner provided by the Bylaws for giving notice of a meeting. The vote required for adoption of an amendment shall be at least two-thirds of the votes of members present at the meeting at which the action is submitted for a vote.

Article 11: Conflict of Interest

This organization calls for members to handle conflicts of interest and related-party transactions with excellence and integrity. Conflicts can be avoided most easily when the organization has a stated conflicts of interest policy and annually asks the Board of Directors and key administrative personnel to document potential conflicts. All trustees, officers, agents, and employees of this organization shall disclose all real or perceived conflicts of interest that they discover or that have been brought to their attention in connection with this organization's activities.

"Conflicts of interest" occur when a person is responsible for promoting the interest of the ministry at the same time he or she is involved in a competing personal interest (financial, business, personal, or relational).

"Disclosure" shall mean providing properly, to the appropriate person, a written description of the facts comprising real or apparent conflicts of interest. An annual questionnaire shall be distributed to trustees, officers, and certain identified agents and key employees to assist them in considering such disclosures, but disclosure is appropriate and required at any time conflicts of interest may occur. The completed questionnaires shall be filed with the CEO or such other person designated by the CEO to receive such notifications. At the meeting of the top governing body, all disclosures of real or perceived conflicts of interest shall be noted for the record in the minutes.

An individual trustee, officer, agent, or key employee who believes that he or she or an immediate member of his or her immediate family might have real or perceived conflicts of interest, in addition to filing a notice of disclosure, must abstain from

1. participating in discussions or deliberations with respect to the subject of the conflict (other than to present factual information or to answer questions),
2. using his or her personal influence to affect deliberations,
3. making motions,
4. voting,
5. executing agreements, or
6. taking similar actions on behalf of the organizations where the conflict of interest might pertain by law, agreement, or otherwise.

At the discretion of the top governing body or a committee thereof, a person with real or perceived conflicts of interest may be excused from all or any portion of discussion or deliberations with respect to the subject of the conflict.

A member of the top governing body or a committee thereof, who, having disclosed conflicts of interest, nevertheless shall be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting in which the subject of the conflict is discussed. The minutes of the meeting shall reflect the individual's disclosure, the vote, and the individual's abstention from participation and voting.

The CEO and Board Chair shall ensure that all trustees, officers, agents, employees, and independent contractors of the organization are made aware of the organization's policy with respect to conflicts of interest.
