ARTICLE V DEDICATION OF ASSETS

The corporation shall hold and administer all its assets and accumulated income to effectuate its tax-exempt purposes. No part of the income or assets of the corporation shall inure to the private benefit of any individual or director except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payment and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles of Incorporation. If the corporation's purposes fail or if the corporation ceases to be approved as a tax-exempt organization under the Code, and any such defect is not cured by appropriate amendment, or if the corporation voluntarily dissolves, then all of the corporation's assets and accumulated income shall be distributed to such Christian Churches and organizations that share common bonds and convictions with Christian Churches as the directors determine, or in the event no Christian Churches or affiliated organizations exist or are qualified as tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or the corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, to such other organizations or units of government as the directors (or in default of designation by the directors, the Circuit Court for the County of Seminole, Florida) shall designate as best accomplishing the purposes for which the corporation was formed, provided that (a) each organization receiving such assets is qualified as tax-exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or the corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws, or (b) each distribution to a unit of government is made for a public purpose to the United States federal government or to a state or local government. The corporation shall be dissolved after all its property has been so distributed.
