ARTICLE III PURPOSE

The purpose for which the Corporation is organized is repairing homes, revitalizing communities, and rebuilding lives, as well as promoting and supporting various charitable, scientific, and educational purposes as are determined by the Board of Directors. The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the "Code"), or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its officers, incorporator, directors, or other private persons except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of its charitable, religious, scientific and educational purposes set forth in Article III. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2)(B) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Furthermore, if at any time the Corporation is classified as a private foundation within the meaning of section 509(a) of the Code, the Corporation (i) shall distribute its income at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by section 4942 of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code; (ii) shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941(d) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code; (iii) shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943(c) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code; (iv) shall not make any investment in such a manner as to subject it to tax under section 4944 of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code; and (v) shall not make any taxable expenditure as defined in section 4945(d) Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
