In compliance with Chapter 617, F.S., (Not for Profit)

Article III The Corporation is organized and operated exclusively to carry on one or more exempt functions as defined in Section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, including the function of influencing or attempting to influence the selection, nomination, election, or appointment of any individual to any Federal, State, or local public office or office in a political organization, or the election of Presidential or Vice-Presidential electors, whether or not such individual or electors are selected, nominated, elected, or appointed.

The Corporation shall not possess or exercise any power or authority, expressly, by interpretation, or by operation of law, that will prevent it at any time from qualifying and continuing to qualify as a political organization described in section 527 of the Internal Revenue Code, nor shall it engage directly or indirectly in any activity which would cause the loss of such qualification.

No part of the net income of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributed to its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services actually rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose and objects set forth in this Article III.

The Corporation shall not have members.

Article IV The initial Board of Directors shall be identified in these Articles of Incorporation. Subsequently, the Board of Directors shall be elected in accordance with the Bylaws.

Article IX The Corporation may be dissolved at any time by a majority vote of Directors of the Corporation then in office at a special meeting of the Board called for such purpose. Following such vote, the Board of Directors shall supervise the orderly dissolution of the organization, including the distribution of the remaining funds of the organization consistent with the purposes stated herein.

Upon dissolution of the corporation or the winding up of its affairs, the assets of the Corporation, if any, remaining after payment or provision for payment of all liabilities, shall be distributed to one or more organizations that are exempt from taxation under section 527 and have purposes similar to those of the Corporation, or be distributed to one or more organizations that are exempt from taxation under section 501(c)(4) or section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Article X The Corporation shall indemnify any director or officer, or any former director or officer, to the fullest extent permitted by applicable by law, and as provided in the Bylaws in the Corporation.
