ARTICLE III

The purpose or purposes for which the corporation is organized are as follows:

To help raise funds for other nonprofits that help those in need in the community. Our fundraising goals are to help out other nonprofits who are serving the community with meals and other daily needs especially in this time of uncertainty when people are not able to have in person fundraisers, live internet activities to keep people engaged with their community will be essential. Bingo Earth would like to connect nonprofits with other nonprofits to help build a community of resources for those in need. Working together allows you to have a greater impact and lends credibility to the efforts of all involved. Bingo Earth has a line-up of different entertainers that would appear live each week on Bingo Earth's broadcast. During the broad cast viewers could donate to the designated nonprofits for that week. The designated nonprofits will each receive 25% to 50% of the funds gathered that week. Funds held by Bingo Earth will be deposited in a federally insured bank account and such funds will not be commingled with other funds held by the Bingo Earth. Bingo Earth will raise and keep a reserve to continue to help out community nonprofits in case of any unforeseen emergency or financial crisis.

Said organization is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by any organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for the public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principle office of the organization is then located, exclusively for the purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
