ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
IGNITE INNOVATION TECHNOLOGY FOUNDATION, INC.

These Articles of Incorporation of Ignite Innovation Technology Foundation, Inc. (these "Articles" or these "Articles of Incorporation") are dated to be effective as of April 27, 2020, and the "Effective Date" of these Articles of Incorporation shall be April 27, 2020, as also set forth in Section 8.1 hereof.

ARTICLE I

Section 1.1 The name of the Corporation is Ignite Innovation Technology Foundation, Inc.

Section 1.2 The Corporation is organized pursuant to the provisions of the Florida Not for Profit Corporations Act, Florida Statutes, Section 617.01011, et seq., as amended (the "Florida Not for Profit Corporations Act").

Section 1.3 The initial registered office of the Corporation shall be Capitol Corporate Services, Inc., 515 E. Park Ave., Floor 2, Tallahassee, Florida 32301. The initial registered agent of the Corporation at such address shall be Capitol Corporate Services, Inc.

Section 1.4 The initial principal office of the Corporation shall be located at 800 S. Pointe Dr., Suite 504, Miami Beach, Florida 33139.

ARTICLE II

Section 2.1 The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. It is intended that the Corporation will qualify at all times as an organization exempt from federal income tax under Sections 501(a) and 501(c)(3) of the Code and not as a private foundation under Section 509 of the Code.

Section 2.2 The Corporation is organized and shall be operated exclusively in furtherance of its exempt charitable purposes in compliance with Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and as a not for profit corporation under the Florida Not for Profit Corporations Act. The Corporation shall have the power to accept donations of money or property, whether real or personal, or any interest therein, wherever situated. No contribution shall be made or accepted that does not further the exempt charitable purposes for which the Corporation has been organized.

Section 2.3 The Corporation shall have the power to do and perform all things set out in this Article II as a purpose of the Corporation, and anything necessary or incidental to the accomplishment of said purposes. In addition to the powers set forth in the foregoing provisions of this Article II, the Corporation shall have the power to exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon not for profit corporations, including, but not limited to, all applicable rights and powers under the Florida Not for Profit Corporations Act (except as expressly restricted by the specificity of the foregoing provisions of this Article II).

ARTICLE III

Section 3.1 The Corporation is irrevocably dedicated to, and operated exclusively for, not for profit and charitable purposes in compliance with Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and the Florida Not for Profit Corporations Act. No part of the property or assets of the Corporation and no part of its earnings or revenues shall ever at any time inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, the Directors or officers of the Corporation, or to any other private individuals or entities.

Section 3.2 The Corporation shall be authorized to make payments in furtherance of its charitable purposes set forth in Article II hereof. The Corporation shall be authorized to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered or goods, assets or other consideration received, provided that any such payments shall comply with the requirements of the Florida Not for Profit Corporations Act and the Code.

Section 3.3 The Corporation shall not engage in any activity or undertaking that would jeopardize or adversely affect either its status as an exempt organization under the Code. The Corporation shall not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation to such extent as would result in loss of its exemption from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. No activity of the Corporation shall consist of participating in or intervening in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) political campaigns on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles of Incorporation to the contrary, the Corporation shall not engage in any activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code and exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(a) of the Code or the corresponding section of any future Code or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code or the corresponding section of any future Code.

Section 3.4 Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all of the assets of the Corporation to one or more other Exempt Organizations, as the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall determine will best accomplish the exempt charitable purposes of the Corporation. In the event that, for any reason, upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall fail to act in the manner herein provided within a reasonable period of time, a Florida court of competent jurisdiction shall make such distribution, exclusively for the exempt charitable purposes of the Corporation set forth in Article II hereof as the court shall determine, upon the application of one or more Directors of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IV

Section 4.1 The Board of Directors shall consist of an odd number of Directors of not less than three (3) or more than five (5) individuals, which appointments shall be in accordance with the Corporation's Bylaws. or at such other meeting for which notice of such proposed change in the identity or the number of Directors shall have been duly given in accordance with the Corporation's Bylaws. The initial Board of Directors of the Corporation shall be the three (3) individuals whose names and addresses are set forth below.
