ARTICLE VI- GENERAL STATEMENT AS TO FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSEQUENCES

1. At all times, and notwithstanding the merger, consolidation, reorganization, termination, dissolution, or winding up of this Corporation, voluntary or involuntary or by operation of law:

A. This Corporation shall not possess or exercise any power of authority either expressly, by interpretation, or by operation of law that will or might prevent it at any time from qualifying, and continuing to qualify, as a Corporation described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended (hereafter sometimes referred to as "the Code").

contributions to which are deductible for federal income tax purposes, nor shall it engage directly or indirectly in any activity which might cause the loss of such qualifications.

B. No part of the assets or net earnings of this Corporation shall ever be used for purposes that are not exclusively religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. This Corporation shall not be organized or operated for purposes that are not exclusively religious, charitable, scientific, literary, or educational within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

C. This Corporation shall never be operated for the primary purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit.

D. No substantial part of the activities of this Corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation; nor shall it participate or intervene in any manner, to any extent, in any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office, whether by publishing or distributing statements, or otherwise.

E. At no time shall this Corporation engage in any activities which are unlawful under the laws of the United States of America, the State of Florida, or any other jurisdiction where its activities are carried on; nor shall it engage in any transaction defined at the time as prohibited under the Code.

F. No compensation, loan or other payment shall be paid or made to any officer, director, incorporator, of this Corporation, or substantial contributor to it, unless such payment is permissible under the Code; and no part of the assets or net earnings, current or accumulated of this Corporation shall ever be distributed to or divided among any such person or persons, or inure to, be sued for, accrue to or to the benefit of any such person or private individual (pursuant to the prohibition contained in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code).

G. No solicitation of contributions to this Corporation shall be made, and no gift, bequest or devise to this Corporation shall be accepted, upon any condition or limitation which, in the opinion of the Corporation, may cause the Corporation to lose its exemption from payment of federal income taxes.

H. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. If reference to federal law in articles of incorporation imposes a limitation that is invalid in your state, you may wish to substitute the following for the last sentence of the preceding paragraph: "Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, this corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activities or exercise any powers that aren't in furtherance of the purposes of this corporation."

2. Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

3. Any references herein to any provision of the Internal Revenue Code shall be deemed to mean such provision as now or hereafter existing, amended supplemented, or superseded as the case may be.

ARTICLE VII - INDEMNIFICATION

The private property of the officers and directors of this Corporation shall not be liable for its corporate debts. To the extent permitted by Florida Statutes and by the applicable provisions of the Internal Revenue Code and regulations governing 501(c)(3) organizations, the Corporation shall indemnify and defend its officers and its directors from and against liability arising from their offices or for their acts on behalf of the Corporation.

ARTICLE VIII – NON-STOCK CORPORATION

The Corporation shall be non-stock, and no dividends or pecuniary benefits shall be declared or paid to the members thereof.

ARTICLE IX - AMENDMENT OF ARTICLES

These Articles may be amended in the manner provided by statute at the time of amendment, provided however, that no such amendment shall be made or effective unless a resolution approving same shall have been duly adopted by the Board of Directors of the Corporation.
