SECRETARY OF STATE
TALLAHASSEE, FLORIDA

The undersigned incorporators by these articles associate themselves for the purpose of forming a not-for-profit corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, and adopt the following articles of incorporation:

ARTICLE I. NAME

The name of this corporation is VILLA BRANTRI TOWNHOME CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION, INC. For convenience, the corporation shall be referred to in this instrument as the "Association," these articles of incorporation as the "Articles," and the bylaws of the Association as the "Bylaws."

ARTICLE II. PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The initial principal office and mailing address of this corporation shall be:

2090 NW 133 Avenue, Unit 1
Miami, Florida 33182

ARTICLE III. TERM OF EXISTENCE

The term of the Association shall be the life of the Condominium unless the Association is terminated sooner by the unanimous action of its members. The Association shall be terminated by the termination of the Condominium in accordance with the Declaration.

ARTICLE IV. PURPOSE

This Association is organized for the purpose of providing an entity under the Florida Condominium Act ("the Act") for the operation of a condominium located in Miami-Dade County, Florida, and known as VILLA BRANTRI TOWNHOME CONDOMINIUM, A CONDOMINIUM ("the Condominium"), to be created under the declaration of condominium ("the Declaration"). The Association is to undertake the performance of and to carry out the acts and duties incident to the administration of the operation and management of the Condominium in accordance with the terms, provisions, conditions and authorizations, contained in these Articles and which may be contained in the Declaration, both of which will be recorded among the Public Records of Miami-Dade County, Florida, encompassing the real property described above and the improvements thereon that are submitted to condominium ownership; and to own, maintain, manage, operate, lease, sell, trade and otherwise deal with such property, whether real or personal, as may be necessary and convenient in the administration of the Condominium. All terms set forth in these Articles and defined in the Declaration for the Condominium shall have such meanings as are therein set forth.

2. Membership in the Association shall be established by recording in the Public Records of Miami Dade County, Florida, an instrument or deed establishing a fee simple interest in a Condominium Parcel or evidencing a change of record title to a Condominium Parcel in the Condominium and the notification in writing to the Association of the recording information. The new record owner designated by such instrument thereby becomes a member of the Association if his purchase was in compliance with the Declaration of Condominium. The membership of the prior owner shall thereby terminate. The Developer, to the extent of its ownership of Condominium Parcels comprising the Condominium, is a member of the Association, holding memberships equal to the number of unsold parcels it holds in the Condominium.
3. The share of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, pledged or transferred in any manner except as an appurtenance to the individual Unit.
4. Members of the Association shall be entitled to one (1) vote for each Condominium Unit owned by such member. ARTICLE VI. POWERS

The powers of the Association shall include and be governed by the following provisions:

(g) To purchase insurance upon the Condominium Property and insurance for the protection of the Association, its officers, directors, and members as Unit Owners.

ARTICLE IX. INDEMNIFICATION

1. The Association shall indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or contemplated action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, employee, officer or agent of the Association, against expenses (including attorney's fees and appellate attorney's fees), judgments, penalties, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Association, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable for gross negligence or misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of his duty to the Association unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all of the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnification for such expenses which such court shall deem proper. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Association, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

2. To the extent that a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 1 above or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorney's fees and appellate attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

3. Any indemnification under Section 1 above (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Association only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 1 above. Such determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (b) if such quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable, if a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or by a majority of the members of the Association.

4. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Association in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he is entitled to be indemnified by the Association as authorized in this Article IX.

5. The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any bylaw, agreement, vote of members or otherwise, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, officer, employee or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs and personal representatives of such person.

6. The Association shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Association, or is or was serving, at the request of the Association, as a director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE X. BYLAWS

The first Bylaws of the Association shall be those Bylaws appended to the Declaration of Condominium and may be altered, amended or rescinded in the manner provided by said Bylaws.
