ARTICLE III - PURPOSE

This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, scientific and educational purposes; more specifically to serve, motivate, and to provide outreach. To this end, the corporation shall at all times be operated exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended. All funds, whether income or principal, and whether acquired by gift or contribution or otherwise, shall be devoted to said purposes. This Corporation shall adhere to any corresponding section of any future federal tax code, to which end the Corporation is specifically authorized to conduct, perform, and undertake any of the following activities:

- a. To solicit gifts and donations from public or private individuals, businesses, foundations, and governmental entities in support of one or more of the purposes or activities of the Corporation including but not limited to scholarship programs, concerts, and education.
- b. To collect fees: from registrations, admission to workshops, conferences, from instructional classes, lectures, and community events; and to do these and all other legal activities necessary to carry out and fulfill the stated purposes of the Corporation.

c. To carry on any other lawful business whatsoever that the Corporation may deem appropriate, and to exercise all powers and authorities conferred upon it by the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act, now in effect or as subsequently amended, provided such activities or exercise of powers is otherwise consistent with the purposes and objectives of the Corporation, as set forth in these Articles of Incorporation.

This foregoing statement of corporate purposes and objectives shall be liberally construed in furtherance of aiding the conduct and operation of the Corporation. No express recital of power or authority shall be construed or interpreted to restrict or limit any general power or authority when such general power or authority is otherwise conferred by these Articles of Incorporation or by applicable corporation law.

ARTICLE IV - EXEMPTION REQUIREMENTS

At all times shall the following operate as conditions restricting the operations and activities of the Corporation:

1. The corporation shall not afford pecuniary gain, incidentally or otherwise to its members. No part of the net earnings of this corporation shall inure to the benefit of any member of the corporation, except that reasonable compensation may be paid for services rendered to or for the corporation affecting one or more of its purposes. Such net earnings, if any, of this corporation shall be used to carry out the nonprofit corporate purposes set forth in Article III above.
2. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall constitute the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, or any initiative or referendum before the public, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including by publication or distribution of statements), any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.
3. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now enacted or hereafter amended.

ARTICLE V - DURATION

The duration of the corporate existence shall be perpetual until dissolution.

ARTICLE VI – MANNER OF ELECTION OF BOARD MEMBERS AND MEMBERSHIP

At each annual meeting of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall elect new Directors to replace those Directors whose terms will expire as of the date of such annual meeting. Election of the Directors will be by ballot or voice vote of a quorum of the Directors present. The new Directors' terms shall commence as of the day immediately following the annual meeting. Unless terminated earlier in accordance with this Article, each Director shall hold office until the expiration of the term for which he/she is elected and qualified.

The corporation shall have one or more classes of members, as provided in the corporation's bylaws. The management of the affairs of the corporation shall be vested in a Board of Directors, as defined in the corporation's bylaws. No Director shall have any right, title, or interest in or to any property of the corporation.
