Unit 3509

Tampa, FL 33610

Mailing address, if different is:

109 W Fortune Street

Unit 3509

Tampa, FL 33610

ARTICLE III – PURPOSE

The purpose for which the corporation is organized is to educate and engage underserved individuals through multiple media platforms to provide leadership, critical thinking and entrepreneurial skills that will excite and empower them to create or enhance a powerful mindset that leads to a self-sufficient life.

ARTICLE IV – THE MANNER OF ELECTION

The manner in which the directors are elected and appointed is as follows: the officers of the corporation shall be a Chairman of the Board, President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer, all of whom shall be chosen by, and serve with the pleasure of, the Board of Directors and be confirmed by a majority vote (51%). Each board officer shall have the authority and shall perform the duties set forth in the Bylaws or by resolution of the Board or by direction of an officer authorized by the Board to prescribe the duties in authority of other Officers. The Board may also appoint additional Vice Presidents and such other officers as it deems expedient for the proper conduct of the business of the corporation, each of whom shall have such authority and shall perform such duties as the Board of Directors may determine. One person may hold two or more board offices, but no board officer may act in more than one capacity where action of two or more officers is required.

ARTICLE V – TAX EXEMPTION

Coaching Dreams Into Success, Inc. is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, including for such purposes, as providing services to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by any organization exempt under Section 501(c)3 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and its Regulations as they exist or as they may hereafter exist in the future, or by a corporation to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE VI – ACTIVITIES AND RESTRICTIONS

Section 1: No dividends, liquidating dividends or distributions shall be declared or paid by; the corporation to any private individual, officer or of the corporation.

Section 2: No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, unless by appropriate election a greater part is permitted without jeopardizing the corporation's exemption under Section 501(c)(3). Corporation shall neither participate nor intervene in any political campaign on of (or in opposition) to any candidate for public office, including the publication or distribution of any statements.

Section 3: No part of the net earnings or net income of the Corporation shall insure to the benefit of any private individual, officer or director of the corporation; provided, however, that such a person may receive reasonable compensation for personal services rendered, or reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred, which are necessary to carry out the exempt purposes of the corporation.

Section 4: Whenever the corporation is a private foundation as by Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the income of the corporation shall be distributed at such time and in such a manner as to not subject it to tax under Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code, and the corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing, retain any business holdings, make any taxable expenditures as defined in Sections 4941(d), 4943(c), and 4945(d), respectively, of the Internal Revenue Code, make any investments which subject the corporation to tax under Section 4944 Of the Internal Revenue Code, or make my indemnification which would give rise to a penalty excise tax under Chapter 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

ARTICLE VII – DISSOLUTION

In the event of the dissolution of the corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions of the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, distribute all of the assets of the corporation exclusively to one or more organization then described in Sections 170(c) 501(c)3, 2055(a)2 and 2522(a)2 of the Internal Revenue Code, having purposes substantially similar to those of the corporation (except that no private foundation as defined by Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be a recipient) or to one or more unities or agencies of federal, state or local government to be exclusively used for public purposes, the Board of Directors shall determine.

ARTICLE VIII – AMENDMENT

These Articles may be amended by the directors of the corporation by a vote of a majority (51%) of the number of directors in office at the time that the amendment is adopted provided that no amendment shall substantially change the original purpose of the corporation.

ARTICLE IX – LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION

The liability of a director to the corporation for money damages for any action taken, or any failure to take any action, as a director, is hereby eliminated, except liability for any of the following:

1. The amount of a financial benefit received by a director to which the director is not entitled.
2. An intentional infliction of harm on the corporation.
3. A violation of Section 617.0834 of the Florida Non for Profit Corporation Act (relating to unlawful distributions).
4. An intentional violation of any federal or state criminal law relating to any action, or any failure to take any action, while acting in the capacity as a director of the corporation.

The above withstanding, the corporation shall otherwise indemnify the directors to extent permitted by the Florida Non for Profit Corporation Act and shall advance funds for or reimburse expenses pursuant to Section 617.0834 of the Florida Non for Profit Corporation Act.
