ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
601 OAK STREET WAREHOUSE CONDOMINIUM ASSOCIATION PHASE I, INC.
(A Corporation not for profit under the laws of the State of Florida.)

The undersigned hereby associate themselves into a corporation not for profit under Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, and certify as follows:

ARTICLE 1.
NAME

1.1 The name of the corporation shall be 601 Oak Street Warehouse Condominium Association PHASE I, Inc. For convenience, the corporation shall be referred to in this instrument as the "Association."

1.2 After filing with the Florida Secretary of State, the name of the Association may be amended only with the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent (75%) or more of all members of the Association.

ARTICLE 2.
PURPOSE

2.1 The purpose for which the Association is organized is to provide an entity for the operation and management of 601 Oak Street Warehouse Condominium Phase I, a Condominium (the "Condominium") and to undertake the duties and acts incident to administration, management and operation of said Condominium. The actual location of the Condominium is described by legal description attached as Exhibit A to the Declaration of Condominium. The actual street address of the Condominium is 601 Oak Street, Building 17, Port Orange, FL 32127. The principal office of the Condominium shall be as provided herein.

2.2 The Association shall make no distributions of income to its members, directors or officers. The Association shall be conducted as a non-profit organization for the benefit of its members pursuant to Florida law.

ARTICLE 3.
POWERS

The Association shall have the following powers:

3.1 The Association shall have all of the common law and statutory powers of a corporation not-for-profit; not otherwise in conflict with the terms of these Articles.

3.2 The Association shall have all of the powers and duties set forth in Chapter 718, Florida Statutes (the "Condominium Act"), and all of the powers and duties reasonably necessary to operate the Condominium pursuant to the Declaration, as it may be amended from time to time, including but not limited to the following:

a. To make and establish reasonable rules and regulations governing the use of the Suites and the Common Elements of the Condominium.

b. To make and collect assessments against members of the Association as suite owners to defray the costs, expenses and losses of the Condominium.

c. To use the proceeds of assessments in the exercise of its powers and duties.

d. To maintain, repair, replace, operate and manage the property comprising the Condominium; including the right to reconstruct improvements after casualty and to make further improvements to the Condominium Property.

e. To purchase insurance upon the Condominium Property and insurance for the protection of the Association.

f. To approve or disapprove the transfer, leasing, mortgaging and ownership of Suites, if such approval is required by the Declaration of Condominium and By-Laws.

g. To enforce by legal means the provisions of the Condominium Act, the Declaration of Condominium, these Articles of Incorporation, the By-Laws of the Association and the rules and regulations governing the use of the Condominium Property.

h. To contract for the management of the Condominium and to delegate to such contractors all powers and duties of the Association, except such powers as are specifically required by the Declaration of Condominium to have approval of the Board of Directors or the membership of the Association.

i. To contract for the management or operation of portions of the Common Elements susceptible to separate management or operation.

j. To employ personnel to perform the services required for proper operation of the Condominium.

k. To exercise, undertake and accomplish all of the rights, duties and obligations which may be granted to, or imposed upon, the Association pursuant to the Declaration of Condominium aforementioned.

3.3 All funds and the titles of all properties acquired by the Association, and any proceeds therefrom, shall be held for the members in accordance with the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, these Articles of Incorporation and the By-Laws.

3.4 The powers of the Association shall be subject to, and shall be exercised in accordance with, the provisions of the Declaration of Condominium, these Articles and the By-Laws.

ARTICLE 4. MEMBERS

The qualification of the members, the manner of their admission to membership and termination of such membership, and voting by members shall be as follows:

4.1 The members of the Association shall consist of all of the record title owners of the Suites in the Condominium. No other persons or entities shall be entitled to membership except as provided in Paragraph 4.5 of this Article 4. After termination of the Condominium, the members of the Association shall consist of those Suite Owners who are members at the time of such termination, and their successors and assigns.

4.2 Change of membership in the Association shall be established by recording in the public records of Volusia County, Florida, a deed or other instrument establishing a record title to a Suite in the Condominium. The owner or owners designated by such instrument thus becomes a member of the Association and the membership of the prior owner is terminated. The Association may require delivery to the Association of a true copy of the recorded deed as a condition of permitting a member to vote and to use the Common Elements.

4.3 The interest of a member in the funds and assets of the Association cannot be assigned, hypothecated or transferred in any manner except as an appurtenance to his suite. The funds and assets of the Association belong solely to the Association subject to the limitation that same be expended, held or used for the benefit of the membership and for the purposes authorized herein, in the Declaration of Condominium, and in the By-Laws which may be hereafter adopted.

4.4 On all matters upon which the membership shall be entitled to vote, there shall be one vote appurtenant to each suite weighted evenly, which vote shall be exercised or cast in the manner provided in the By-Laws of the Association.

4.5 Until such time as the Declaration of Condominium is recorded, the membership of the Association shall be comprised of the subscribers of these Articles, each of whom shall be entitled to cast one (1) vote on all matters on which the membership shall be entitled to vote.

ARTICLE 5. PRINCIPAL OFFICE

The principal office of the Association shall be located at 912 Bentwood Lane, Port Orange, FL 32127. The Association may maintain offices and transact business in such other places within or without the State of Florida as may from time to time be designated by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors may change the principal office by majority vote of the Board of Directors with the change occurring immediately upon filing of the new address with the Florida Secretary of State.

ARTICLE 6.
DIRECTORS

6.1 The affairs of the Association will be managed by a Board consisting of not less than three (3) nor more than four (4) directors. The number of members of the Board of Directors shall be as provided from time to time by the By-Laws of the Association, and in the absence of such determination shall consist of three (3) directors. Directors need not be members of the Association.

6.2 Directors of the Association shall be selected and designated at the annual meeting of the members in the manner determined by the By-Laws. Directors may be removed and vacancies on the Board of Directors shall be filled in the manner provided by the By-Laws.

6.3 The names and addresses of the members of the first Board of Directors who shall hold office until their successors have qualified, are as follows:

RICHARD M. COWART	912 Bentwood Lane Port Orange, FL 32127
DONNA D. COWART	912 Bentwood Lane Port Orange, FL 32127
JEFFREY C. SWEET	595 W. Granada Blvd., Suite A Ormond Beach, FL 32174

6.4 The Board of Directors shall elect a President, Secretary, Treasurer, and as many Vice Presidents, Assistant Secretaries, and Assistant Treasurers as the Board of Directors shall determine. The President shall be elected from among the membership of the Board of Directors, but no other officer need be a director. The same person may hold two offices, the duties of which are not incompatible; provided however, that the office of President and Vice President shall not be held by the same person, nor shall the office of President and Secretary or Assistant Secretary be held by the same person.

ARTICLE 7.
OFFICERS

The affairs of the Association shall be administered by the officers; who shall be appointed by, and shall serve at, the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The names and addresses of the officers who shall serve until their successors are designated by the Board of Directors are as follows:

NAME TITLE	ADDRESS
RICHARD M. COWART, President	912 Bentwood Lane Port Orange, FL 32127

DONNA D. COWART, Secretary/Treasurer

912 Bentwood Lane
Port Orange, FL 32127

JEFFREY C. SWEET, Director

595 W. Granada Blvd., Suite A
Ormond Beach, FL 32174

ARTICLE 8. INDEMNIFICATION

8.1 Every director and every officer of the Association shall be indemnified by the Association, to the extent the Association is insured, against all expenses and liabilities, (including reasonable attorneys' fees) incurred by or imposed upon him or her in connection with any proceeding or any settlement of any proceeding to which he/she may be a part of, or in which he/she may become involved by reason of his/her being or having been a director or officer of the Association, whether or not he/she is a director or officer at the time such expenses are incurred, except when the director or officer is adjudged guilty of willful misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of his/her duties. Any payments for indemnification pursuant to this Article must be approved by the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors must determine that the expense being reimbursed is reasonable. If an indemnification payment is pursuant to a settlement, the settlement must be in the best interest of the Association.

8.2 The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such director or officer may be entitled.

ARTICLE 9. BY-LAWS

9.1 The first By-Laws of the Association shall be adopted by the Board of Directors and may be altered, amended or rescinded in the manner provided by the By-Laws.

ARTICLE 10. TERM

The effective date upon which this Association shall come unto existence shall be the date of subscription and acknowledgment of these Articles, and it shall exist perpetually thereafter unless dissolved according to law.

ARTICLE 11. AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation shall be proposed and adopted in the following manner:

11.1 A Resolution for the adoption of a proposed amendment may be proposed by the Board of Directors or any owner of a Suite in the Condominium whether meeting as members or by instrument in writing signed by them.

2003 JUN 10 PM 3:30

11.2 Upon any amendment or amendments to these Articles of Incorporation being proposed by said Board of Directors or members, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be transmitted to the President of the Association or other officer of the Association in the absence of the President, who shall thereupon call a special meeting of the members of the Association for a day no sooner than ten (10) days nor later than sixty (60) days from the receipt by him of the proposed amendment or amendments, and it shall be the duty of the secretary to give to each member written or printed notice of such meeting, stating the time and place of the meeting and reciting the proposed amendment or amendments in reasonably detailed form, which notice shall be mailed to or presented personally to each member not less than seven (7) nor more than thirty (30) days before the date set for such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be assumed to be properly given when deposited in the United States Mail, addressed to the member at his post office address as it appears on the records of the Association, the postage thereon prepaid. Any member may, by written waiver of notice signed by such member waive such notice, and such waiver when filed in the records of the Association, whether before or after the holding of the meeting, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice to such member. At such meeting the amendment or amendments proposed must be approved by an affirmative vote of two thirds (2/3) of the members of the Association in order for such amendment or amendments to become effective (except for an amendment changing the name of the Association which requires the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the members)..

11.3 A copy of each amendment, after it has become effective, shall be transcribed and certified in such form as may be necessary to register the same in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida. Upon the registration of such amendment or amendments with the Florida Secretary of State, a certified copy thereof shall be recorded in the public records of Volusia County, Florida, promptly after the same are so registered. The effective date of the Amendment shall be the date when the Amendment was passed by the appropriate vote of the Membership.

11.4 At any meeting held to consider any amendment or amendments of these Articles of Incorporation, the written vote of any member of the Association shall be recognized if such member is not in attendance at such meeting or represented by proxy; provided such written vote is delivered to the Secretary of the Association at, or prior to, such meeting.

11.5 In the alternative, an amendment may be made by an agreement executed by all the record owners of all suites with the formality required for a deed.

11.6 No Amendment shall make any changes in the qualification for membership, nor any change in Article 3 hereof without approval in writing of all members of the Association and the joinder of all record owners of mortgages encumbering a Suite. No Amendment shall be made that is in conflict with the Condominium Act or the Declaration of Condominium. No amendment shall make any change in the voting rights of members unless the members whose rights are affected and the holders of mortgages encumbering their Suites consent in writing to such change.

ARTICLE 11.

AMENDMENTS

Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation shall be proposed and adopted in the following manner:

11.1 A Resolution for the adoption of a proposed amendment may be proposed by the Board of Directors or any owner of a Suite in the Condominium whether meeting as members or by instrument in writing signed by them.

11.2 Upon any amendment or amendments to these Articles of Incorporation being proposed by said Board of Directors or members, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be transmitted to the President of the Association or other officer of the Association in the absence of the President, who shall thereupon call a special meeting of the members of the Association for a day no sooner than ten (10) days nor later than sixty (60) days from the receipt by him of the proposed amendment or amendments, and it shall be the duty of the secretary to give to each member written or printed notice of such meeting, stating the time and place of the meeting and reciting the proposed amendment or amendments in reasonably detailed form, which notice shall be mailed to or presented personally to each member not less than seven (7) nor more than thirty (30) days before the date set for such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be assumed to be properly given when deposited in the United States Mail, addressed to the member at his post office address as it appears on the records of the Association, the postage thereon prepaid. Any member may, by written waiver of notice signed by such member waive such notice, and such waiver when filed in the records of the Association, whether before or after the holding of the meeting, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice to such member. At such meeting the amendment or amendments proposed must be approved by an affirmative vote of two thirds (2/3) of the members of the Association in order for such amendment or amendments to become effective (except for an amendment changing the name of the Association which requires the affirmative vote of seventy-five percent (75%) or more of the members)..

11.3 A copy of each amendment, after it has become effective, shall be transcribed and certified in such form as may be necessary to register the same in the office of the Secretary of State of the State of Florida. Upon the registration of such amendment or amendments with the Florida Secretary of State, a certified copy thereof shall be recorded in the public records of Volusia County, Florida, promptly after the same are so registered. The effective date of the Amendment shall be the date when the Amendment was passed by the appropriate vote of the Membership.

11.4 At any meeting held to consider any amendment or amendments of these Articles of Incorporation, the written vote of any member of the Association shall be recognized if such member is not in attendance at such meeting or represented by proxy; provided such written vote is delivered to the Secretary of the Association at, or prior to, such meeting.

11.5 In the alternative, an amendment may be made by an agreement executed by all the record owners of all suites with the formality required for a deed.

11.6 No Amendment shall make any changes in the qualification for membership, nor any change in Article 3 hereof without approval in writing of all members of the Association and the joinder of all record owners of mortgages encumbering a Suite. No Amendment shall be made that is in conflict with the Condominium Act or the Declaration of Condominium. No amendment shall make any change in the voting rights of members unless the members whose rights are affected and the holders of mortgages encumbering their Suites consent in writing to such change.
