Aspiring Independent Real Estate Experts (AIREE) is a nonprofit 501 (c) (3) created to develop more independent African American real estate brokers, mortgage brokers, and other real estate professionals in concert with corporate and industry leaders. By working together and being intentional, we can help end systemic roadblocks within the industry, so that everyone has an opportunity to thrive and grow. AIREE was created to help more African Americans take part in the real estate industry and change the trajectory of communities throughout the U.S., that have been either been redlined or left behind. Focused on the development of leadership, broker owners, business development, mentorship, and high growth training. AIREE will helping organizations understand the dynamics that systemic roadblocks bestow on African Americans, and to encourage professionals to learn from the failures of the past, plan for the future, and "Be Intentional" by incorporating more diversity, equity, and inclusion programs geared to helping African Americans and people of color thrive in the real estate industry.
