Article III:

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, as set forth in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law) (the "Code"). The purposes of the Corporation shall include, more specifically: to improve the lives of children and prevent juvenile delinquency through sports and recreation, improve the lives of seniors through medical resources, and improve the lives of all citizens through charity events, promotional activities, scholarships, and volunteerism, and anything reasonably in furtherance of these activities.

The Corporation is intended to be an organization which is exempt from Federal income taxation as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. All terms and provisions of the Articles of Incorporation (and of the Bylaws of the Corporation) shall be construed, applied and carried out in accordance with such intent. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth herein. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article IX:

Upon the dissolution of the Corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as such court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
