EXHIBIT A
ADDENDUM TO ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT

Article 3. Corporate Purposes and Limitations

- a. The Corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes in accordance with Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. More specifically, the Corporation shall provide a place to heal and learn in equestrian high performance. The Corporation rehabilitates, retrains, and rehomes struggling, injured, or failing high performance horses, through exceptional care and horsemanship. The Corporation also educates and empowers equestrian professionals by providing training and support.
- b. The Corporation, being organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, may make distributions to organizations and individuals in furtherance of its corporate purposes and in accordance with Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. Under no circumstances shall the Corporation make any distributions that are inconsistent with its purpose statement above.
- c. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article 4 above. Furthermore, all distributions, if any, shall be made in full accordance with the USA Patriot Act of 2001, P.L. 107-56, 115 Stat. 272 (or a corresponding provision of any future federal or state law concerning antiterrorism).
- d. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be to attempt to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office.
- e. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (1) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code or (2) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code.
- f. Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Corporation, dispose of all of the assets of the Corporation, exclusively for the purposes of the Corporation in such manner, or to such organization(s) organized and operated exclusively for educational or charitable purposes, as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization(s) under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, as the Board of Directors shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the appropriate court of law of the county in which the principal office of the Corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization(s), as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for exempt purposes.

- There are no members or members entitled to vote on the amendment(s). The amendment(s) was/were adopted by the board of directors.
