Article Five Duration

The nonprofit corporation's duration is perpetual.

Article Six Purposes

The nonprofit corporation is organized and will be operated exclusively for general charitable and educational purposes as set forth in Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) including, for these purposes, making distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3). Nothing in this document shall be construed as expressly empowering this nonprofit corporation to engage, otherwise than as an insubstantial part of the nonprofit corporations activities, in activities that in themselves are not in furtherance of the exempt purposes outlined in section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Article Seven Dissolution

When the nonprofit corporation dissolves, the Board of Directors will, after paying or making provision for the payment of all liabilities of the corporation, distribute all corporation assets to one or more organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes that are, at that time, qualified as exempt organizations under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3).

If any assets are not distributed under the preceding paragraph, the court of appropriate jurisdiction for the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, will dispose of those assets exclusively for charitable and educational purposes or to one or more organizations that are, at that time, qualified as exempt organizations under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3), as the court determines, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

Article Eight Restrictions

No part of the net earnings or assets of the nonprofit corporation will inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its director, officers or any other private persons. But the nonprofit corporation may pay reasonable compensation for services provided and make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the Articles of Incorporation.

No part of the activities of the nonprofit corporation may include propagandizing or influencing legislation as defined in Internal Revenue Code Section 4945. The nonprofit corporation may not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributions of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

The nonprofit corporation may not exercise any power or engage directly or indirectly in any activity that would invalidate its status as a corporation exempt from federal income taxation: as a corporation exempt from federal tax under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3); as a corporation contributions to which are deductible under Internal Revenue Code Section 170(c)(2); or as a nonprofit corporation organized under the laws of State of Florida.

The nonprofit corporation must distribute its income for each tax year at a time and in a manner to avoid the tax on undistributed income imposed by Internal Revenue Code Section 4942. Furthermore, the nonprofit corporation must not:

- engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in of the Internal Revenue Code Section 4941(d);

- retain any excess business holdings as defined in of the Internal Revenue Code Section 4943(c);

- make any investments in a manner that would subject it to tax under of the Internal Revenue Code Section 4944; or

- make any taxable expenditures as defined in of the Internal Revenue Code Section 4945(d).

Article Nine Board of Directors

The nonprofit corporation is organized on a non-stock basis and will have no members. The Board of Directors will have authority for all affairs of the nonprofit corporation and may exercise all powers of the nonprofit corporation as permitted by federal law, state law, and the Articles of Incorporation and By-Laws of the nonprofit corporation as in effect from time to time.

The number of directors to constitute the first Board of Directors is three. After this initial Board of Directors is organized, it may change the number of directors in the manner provided in the By-Laws and consistent with the laws of the State of Florida.

Article Ten By-Laws

In furtherance and not in limitation of the powers conferred upon the Board of Directors by law, the Board of Directors shall adopt, amend, and repeal from time to time, the By-Laws of the nonprofit corporation.

Article Eleven Amendments

The nonprofit corporation may amend the Articles of Incorporation in the manner provided by the laws of the State of Florida. But no amendment may authorize the Board of Directors to conduct the affairs of the nonprofit corporation in any manner or for any purpose contrary to the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3).

Article Twelve Miscellaneous

All general or specific references to the Internal Revenue Code are to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 as now in force or later amended, or the corresponding provision of any future United States revenue law. Similarly, any general or specific references to the laws of the State of Florida are to the laws of the State of Florida as now in force or later amended.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Amended Articles of Incorporation shall become effective as of the date filed with the state of Florida.
