PURPOSE

The Foundation is organized exclusively for charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in effect or hereafter amended (the "Code"), including without limitation donating funds to a variety of public charities exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and any purpose related thereto that is permitted of an organization exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

The Foundation shall have such powers as are now or may hereafter be granted by the Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act, as amended or any successor legislation (the "Act"), except that such powers may be exercised only in furtherance of the purposes of the Foundation as stated in its Articles of Incorporation as filed with the Florida Secretary of State, including any amendments thereto (the "Articles") and consistent with its status as (a) a corporation described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or (b) a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law).

No part of the net earnings of the Foundation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, the Foundation's directors, officers or other private persons, except that the Foundation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered.

No substantial part of the activities of the Foundation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except as otherwise provided in Section 501(h) of the Code) and the Foundation shall not participate in or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition to) any candidate for public office. To the extent that Section 501(c)(3) of the Code is at any time amended to permit participation or intervention in a political campaign or to permit to a greater extent the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation by an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, the Foundation shall be authorized to carry on such activities to the extent permitted by Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

ARTICLE IX

DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the Foundation, the Board of Directors of the Foundation shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Foundation, dispose of all of the assets of the Foundation to any corporation(s), organization(s), or society(ies) selected by the Board of Directors that (i) in the judgment of the Board of Directors is engaged in activities substantially similar to those of the Foundation, (ii) is then qualified under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, and (iii) satisfies or has agreed to comply with any other regulatory requirement, not inconsistent with the requirements of said Section 501(c)(3) of the Code, with respect to the disposition or utilization of such assets so distributed as may be applicable to such assets or be a condition to such distribution imposed by law or by a federal or state regulatory agency having jurisdiction thereover. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of, by a court of competent jurisdiction of the country in which the principal office of the Foundation is then located, to any corporation(s), organization(s), or society(ies), as said court shall determine, that is engaged in activities substantially similar to those of the Foundation and that is then qualified under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code.
