ARTICLE IV POWERS

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE V PERPETUAL EXISTENCE

The Corporation shall have perpetual existence.

ARTICLE VI BYLAWS

The first Bylaws of the Corporation shall be adopted by the Board of Directors and may be altered, amended or rescinded by the Board of Directors and the members of this Corporation.

ARTICLE VII INDEMNIFICATION

Every director and every officer of the Corporation shall be indemnified by the Corporation against all expenses and liabilities including counsel fees, reasonable incurred by or imposed upon him in connection with any proceeding to which he may be a party, or in which he may become involved, by reason of his being or having been a director or officer at the time such expenses are incurred except in such cases wherein the director or officer is adjudged guilty or willful misfeasance of malfeasance in the performance of his duties; provided that in the event of any claim for reimbursement or indemnification herein shall only apply if the Board of Directors approves such settlement and reimbursement as being in the best interests of the Corporation. The foregoing right of indemnification shall be in addition to and not exclusive of all other rights to which such directors or officers may be entitled.

The Board of Directors may, and shall if the same is reasonable available, purchase liability insurance to insure all directors, officers or agents, past and present, against all expenses and liabilities as set forth above.

ARTICLE VIII AMENDMENTS

An amendment or amendments to these Articles of Incorporation may be proposed by the Board of Directors of the Corporation acting upon a vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the directors, whether meeting as members or by instrument in writing signed by them. Upon any amendment or amendments to these Articles of Incorporation being proposed by said Board of Directors or members, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be transmitted to the president of the Corporation, or other officer of the Corporation in the absence of the president, who shall thereupon call a special meeting of the members of the Corporation for a date not sooner than fifteen (15) days nor later than thirty (30) days from the receipt of him of the proposed amendment or amendments, and it shall be the duty of the secretary to give to each member written or printed notice of such meeting stating the time and place of the meeting and reciting the proposed amendment or amendments in reasonably detailed form, which notice shall be mailed or presented personally to each member not less than five (5) days nor more than seven (7) days before the date set for such meeting. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be properly given when deposited in the United States mail, addressed to the member at his post office address as it appears in the records of the Corporation and the postage thereon prepaid. Any member, may by written waiver of notice signed by such member, waive such notice, and such waiver when filed in the records of the Corporation whether before or after the holding of the meeting shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of such notice to such member. At such meeting, the amendment or amendments proposed must be approved by an affirmative vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the Board of Directors in order for such amendment or amendments to be effective. Thereupon, such amendment or amendments of these Articles of Incorporation shall be transcribed and certified in such form as may be necessary to register the same in the office of the Secretary of the State of Florida and upon the registration of such amendment or amendments with the said Secretary of State, a certified copy thereof shall be recorded in the Public Records of Volusia County, Florida, within fifteen (15) days from the date on which the same are so registered. At any meeting held to consider such amendment or amendments of these Articles of Incorporation, the written vote of any member of the Corporation shall be recognized, if such member is not in attendance at such meeting or represented there by proxy, provided such written vote is delivered to the secretary of the Corporation at or prior to such meeting.

Provided, however, that no amendment shall make changes in the qualifications for membership nor the voting rights of the members, without approval in writing of all members.
