ARTICLE III
PURPOSE OF CORPORATION

The purpose of which the corporation is organized is:

The general purpose and object of this corporation shall be to act as a social service and referral service organization to assist individuals, particularly the at risk and disadvantaged and other institutions connected therewith of a religious, educational, charitable and benevolent nature, and to establish and engage in charitable, humanitarian and philanthropic activities to the benefit of the underprivileged members of society, creating programs for the chronically at risk. We endeavor to provide for the existence of structured leadership and organizational cohesion by the establishment of community-based initiatives via outreach programs.

To provide a form where the dynamism of the human spirit may be guided and molded into an effective organism committed through the need for fellowship and mutual support.

The corporation is organized and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501 c 3 of the Internal Revenue Code. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles the corporation shall not carry out any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under Section 501 c 3 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal Revenue Law) or by a corporation, contributors to which are deductible under section 170 c 2 of the Internal Revenue code of 1983 for corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law.

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall insure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for the services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaign on or behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other activities not permitted to be carried on (i) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501 (c) (3) of the code; or (ii) by an organization contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) code.

Upon dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purpose or to such organization and operated exclusively for such purposes.

To operate exclusively in any other manner for such religious, charitable, scientific purposes and educational purposes that qualify as exempt organization under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, or under any corresponding provisions of any subsequent federal tax laws covering the distributions to organizations qualified as tax exempt.

To do any and all things related to and in connection with the carrying out of the object and purpose herein above set forth.
