ARTICLE VIII OFFICERS

8.1 The business of the Association shall be conducted by the officers designated in the Bylaws. The officers shall be elected each year by the Board of Directors at its first meeting after the annual meeting of the members of the Association, and they shall serve at the pleasure of the Board.

ARTICLE IX INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

9.1 Indemnification and Defense of Directors, Officers, and other Agents of the Board. As limited in this §9.1, the Association shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless any Person from and against any liability, when the Person was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party, to any contemplated, pending, or threatened action or proceeding (whether civil or criminal) by reason of the fact that such Person is or was the Association's: director, officer, committee member, member of a subordinate board, and/or direct employee (expressly meaning to exclude any agents hired by the Association to perform services and/or provide goods, e.g., a management company and its employees). Such Persons shall not be personally liable for any mistake of judgment - negligent or otherwise - or with respect to any contract or other commitment made or action taken, which was made in good faith on behalf of the Association, and the Association shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless such Persons from any liability and reasonable expenses actually incurred which results from such conduct. This indemnity, defense, and hold harmless obligation includes all costs, expenses, and fees incurred by the Person incident to an action or proceeding, but not limited to and without limitation: (a) damages claimed against the Person; (b) fines levied against the Person; (c) judgments entered against the Person; (d) reasonable Attorneys' Fees and Costs; and (e) settlement amounts actually and reasonably incurred by the Person (provided the Association was given reasonable written notice of, an opportunity to participate in, the settlement). For any civil action or proceeding, this indemnity, defense, and hold harmless obligation only applies if the Person's alleged conduct was performed in good faith and in a manner the Person reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the Association. For any criminal action or proceeding, this indemnity, defense, and hold harmless obligation only applies if either: the Person is adjudicated not guilty; the Person had no reasonable cause to believe the alleged conduct was unlawful; or upon such Person being adjudicated guilty of gross negligence (or an equivalent or lesser mens rea) in the performance of the Person's duty to the Association, then only to the extent the Board determines that despite the guilty adjudication in view of all the circumstances of the case such Person should fairly and reasonably be indemnified (and in such cases only for such expenses which the Board shall deem proper). This indemnity, defense, and hold harmless obligation only applies to the extent the Person remains personally liable, and shall be deemed waived if the Person fails to participate in good faith in the defense of the liability (e.g. waiver will occur if the Person enters into any agreement whereby the Person seeks to limit and/or avoid her/his own personal liability in a manner adverse to the Association's interests). This indemnity, defense, and hold harmless obligation shall not be construed to require the Association to reimburse any insurance company or surety claiming subrogation for any fees and/or costs incurred in defending the Person under an insurance policy or bond.

9.2 Advances Under A Reservation of Rights. Any costs, expenses, and fees incurred pursuant to this Article IX in defending any Person in a civil or criminal action or proceeding which are expended by the Association under a reservation of rights and in advance of the final disposition of such action or proceeding, shall be reimbursed by the Person to the Association if a Court ultimately determines that the Person was not entitled to defense and/or indemnification of the subject action or proceeding pursuant this Article IX.

9.3 Non-Exclusivity and Survival. The indemnification, defense, and hold harmless rights provided by this Article IX shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under the Applicable Law, Declaration, Bylaws, any agreement, or otherwise. The indemnification, defense, and hold harmless rights provided by this Article IX shall: (a) continue as to any Person who has ceased to hold the position, but only for claims, causes of action, and/or other such liabilities which accrued during the period in which s/he held the position; and (b) shall inure to the benefit of the administrators, executors, and/or heirs of such Person to the same extent as would otherwise be held by the Person if still alive.

9.4 Insurance. The Association shall have the power (but not the obligation) to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Person who is or was a director, officer, committee member, member of a subordinate board, and/or agent or employee of the Association, or is or was serving at the request of the Association as a director, officer, committee member, member of a subordinate board, and/or agent or employee of another corporation, joint venture, partnership, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against the Person arising out of any such capacity – regardless of whether the Association would have the obligation or power to indemnify the Person against such liability under the provisions of this Article IX.

9.5 Amendments. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in these Articles, the provisions of this Article IX may not be amended and/or supplemented without the prior written consent of all Members whose interest would be adversely affected by such amendment and/or supplement.

9.6 Indemnity, Defense, and Hold Harmless by Owners. Each Owner shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless the Association (and its directors, officers, committee members, members of subordinate boards, and/or agents and employees) from and against any damages, expenses, and other liabilities which they may incur as a result of such Owner's (and/or its Permittees') failure to comply with the Association's Governing Documents, including but not limited to and without limitation: (a) any incurred costs and fees for third-parties to investigate and/or correct the violation, (b) reasonable Attorneys' Fees and Costs; and (c) reasonable administrative fees of the Declarant.

ARTICLE X BYLAWS

ARTICLE XI INCOME DISTRIBUTION

11.1 No part of the income of the Association shall be distributable to its directors, Members, or officers, except as commercially reasonable compensation for services rendered.

ARTICLE XII AMENDMENTS

12.1 Amendments. Amendments to these Articles shall be proposed and adopted in the following manner.

12.1.1 Initiation. These Articles shall not be amended without the written consent of the Declarant until the B Block B-3 Turnover. A resolution to amend these Articles may be proposed by any Member of the Association.

12.1.2 Notice. Notice of the subject matter of a proposed amendment to these Articles shall be included in the notice for any meeting at which a proposed amendment is considered.

12.1.3 Adoption.

- (a) Until the Block B-3 Turnover, the Declarant shall have the right to unilaterally amend these Articles without the joinder or approval of any Member or any other person.
- (b) After the Block B-3 Turnover, a resolution by the Board for the adoption of a proposed amendment to these Articles shall be adopted by the affirmative vote and/or written consent of Members representing greater than fifty-percent (50%) of the votes in the Association; provided written joinder by the Declarant shall be required so long as Declarant owns any property within the Total Property.

- (c) No amendment shall make any changes in the qualification for membership, in the voting rights and/or property rights of Members, or of this Article XII, without the approval of all Members affected by such amendment.

12.1.4 Recording. Upon the approval of an amendment to these Articles, the amendment shall be executed and delivered to the Florida Secretary of State as provided by law, and a copy certified by the Secretary of State shall be recorded in the County's official public records as a Supplement to the Declaration.
