ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT

SECTION E.

EGLISE DE DIEU INDEPENDANTE DE LA PORTE ETROITE DE ST LUCIE COUNTY

Article III

Section A.

The purpose of the corporation exists to glorify God among men. To teach believers everything that has been received from God or from the word of God. To seek lost souls for the Lord. To help Christians, especially young people, to move towards spiritual, ministerial, intellectual, social and economic progress and to aid the hungry and the deprived. The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable and religious purposes, including for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(C)3 of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Lastly, to transacting any, and all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the Florida Not-For-Profit Corporation Act.

Section B.

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall incur to the benefit of, or be distributable to its directors, trustees, officers, or any other private individual (except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by an organization exempt from federal income tax under section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by organization contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)2 of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Section C

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(C)3 of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state and local government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.

Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by the Court of Common Pleas of the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposed or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

The corporation is a non-profit, non-stock corporation, and shall not have any membership fees or admission fees.

Article IV

The number of director(s) may be increased or decreased from time to time in such a manner as may be prescribed by the By-Laws, but shall always be at least (3) one, but not more than (12) twelve.

The corporation shall indemnify and hold harmless each person who shall serve at any time hereafter as a director or officer of the corporation, and serves at the request of the corporation, as a director or officer of any other corporation from against any and all claims and liabilities to which such person shall become subject by reason of his having heretofore or hereafter been a director or officer of this corporation, or by reason of any action alleged to have been heretofore or hereafter taken or omitted by him as such director or officer and shall reimburse each such person for all legal and other expense reasonably incurred by him in connection with any such claim or liability provided that no person shall indemnified against, or to be reimbursed for, any expense incurred in connection with any claim or liability as to which it shall be adjudged that such officer or director is liable for negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his duties.

No contract or other transaction between this corporation and any other corporation, and no act of this corporation shall in any way be affected or invalidated by the fact that any of the directors of the corporation are peculiarly or otherwise interested in, or are directors, or officers, of such other corporation. Any director, individual, or any firm of which any director may be a member party, party to, or may be peculiarly or to otherwise interested in any contract or transaction of the corporation, provided the fact that the interest should be disclosed or should have been known to the Board of Directors at which action upon such contract or transaction shall the corporation indemnify and hold harmless each person who shall serve any time hereafter as a director or officer of the corporation from against any and all claims and liabilities to which such person shall become subject by reason of his having heretofore or hereafter been a director or officer of this corporation, or by reason of any action alleged to have been heretofore or hereafter taken or omitted by him as such director or officer and shall reimburse each such person for all legal and other expense reasonably incurred by him in connection with any such claim or liability provided that no person shall indemnified against, or to be reimbursed for, any expense incurred in connection with any claim and liability as to which it shall be adjudge that such officer or director is liable for negligence or willful misconduct in the performance of his duties.

Any director, individual, or any firm of which any director may be a member, party to, or may be peculiarly or to otherwise interested in any contract or transaction of the corporation, provided the fact that the interest should be disclosed or should have been known to the Board of Directors at which action upon any such contract or transaction shall be taken, an any director of the corporation who is interested may be counted in determining the existence of a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors of the corporation which shall authorize such director or officer of such other corporation or not so interested.

The directors may at their discretion, repeal, alter, or amend the By-Laws of this corporation as provided under Chapter 607.081 of the Florida Statues, restricting the power vested in the Board of Directors to adopt, or repeal the By- Laws within its regular course of business.

The private property of the officers and directors shall not be subject to the payment of the obligations of the corporation to any extent.
