PURPOSE AND POWERS

(1) The purpose for which the Corporation is organized and operated is exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. Such purposes shall include the following:

- A. Mary & Martha Ministries will commit to serving individuals by encouraging, empowering, and equipping them to be all that Christ created them to be. It'll manifest itself through service in a healthy relationship with self, family, and community.
- B. We will assist individuals with the tools and resources through education, leadership, Christian development, and service to the community. We also plan to build a facility for educational, resources, and religious purposes.
- C. Funds to provide the aforementioned services will be raised through fundraisers, collaborating partner sponsorships and individual donors throughout the year.
- D. Most importantly, we will educate and raise awareness about our organizations mission, vision, and its programs.

(2) As a means of accomplishing the above purposes and methods, the Corporation shall have the following powers:

- A. To receive and accept gifts of money and property and to hold the same for any of the purposes of the Corporation and its work.
- B. To raise and assist in raising funds for the purposes herein set forth, including the issuance of bonds or other instruments of credits.
- C. To acquire, own, lease, mortgage, and dispose of property both real and personal.
- D. To accept property and donations in trust for religious or charitable purposes.

(3) The property of the Corporation is irrevocable dedicated to religious, educational and charitable purposes, and no part of the net earnings of the corporation/organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation/organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of Section 501(c)(3) purposes.

- A. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation/organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation/organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office.
- B. The Corporation shall not:

- 1. operate for the purpose of carrying on a trade or business for profit;
- 2. accumulate income, invest income, or divert income, in a manner endangering its exempt status; or
- 3. except to an insubstantial degree, engage in any activity or exercise any powers that are not in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation.

INDEMNIFICATION

This Corporation may be empowered to indemnify any officer or director, or any former officer or director in the manner set out and provided for in the bylaws of this Corporation.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation/organization shall not carry on any other activities nor permitted to be carried on:

1. By a corporation/organization exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(C)3 of the I.R.S. Code (or corresponding section of the any future Federal tax code) or
2. By a corporation/organization, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(e)(2) of the I.R.S. Code (or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code.)

b. Upon dissolution of this corporation/organization assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(C)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future Federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the Federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose.
