ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF
ORLA O'REILLY HAZRA AND SANAT HAZRA
CHARITABLE FOUNDATION, INC.

This is to certify that we, the undersigned, all being 18 years of age or older, hereby form a non stock non profit corporation, subject to the requirements of the general laws of the State of Florida, as hereafter mentioned; and, to that end, we do, by these Articles of Incorporation, set forth as follows:

Article I.
NAME

The name of the Corporation is: Orla O'Reilly Hazra and Sanat Hazra Charitable Foundation, Inc.

Article II.
PRINCIPAL OFFICE & MAILING ADDRESS

The principal office of the Corporation shall be located at 708 Garfield Drive, Sarasota, FL 34236.

Article III.
REGISTERED AGENT AND OFFICE

Its registered agent is Orla O'Reilly Hazra, whose address is 708 Garfield Drive, Sarasota, FL 34236. Said resident agent is a resident of Florida.

Article IV.
PURPOSE

The Corporation is not organized for profit; it shall have no capital stock and shall not be authorized to issue capital stock. The purposes for which the Corporation is formed are:

- 1) The Corporation is organized exclusively for educational and charitable purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), and foreign charities where the Corporation has made a good faith determination that the foreign charity is the equivalent of a Section 501 (c) (3) public charity, as provided by Internal Revenue Service Regulations and Guidelines, and, more specifically, to receive and administer funds for such charitable and educational purposes, all for the public by bequest, devise, gift, purchase, or lease, either absolutely or in trust for such objects and purposes or any of them, any property, real, personal or mixed, without limitation as to amount of value, except such limitations, if any, as may be imposed by law; to sell, convey, and dispose of any such property and to invest and reinvest the principal thereof, and to deal with and expend the income therefrom for any of the before-mentioned purposes, without limitation, except such limitations, if any, as may be contained in the instrument under which such property is received; to receive any property, real, personal mixed, in trust, under the terms of any will, deed of trust, or other trust instrument for the foregoing purposes or any of them, and in administering the same to carry out the directions, and exercise the powers contained in the trust instrument under which the property is received, including the expenditure of the principal as well as the income, for one or more of such purposes, if authorized or directed in the trust instrument under which it is received, but no gift, bequest or devise of any such property shall be received and accepted if it be conditioned or limited in such manner as shall require the disposition of the income or its principal to any person or organization other than an "exempt organization" or a foreign charity when the Corporation has made a good faith determination that the foreign charity is the equivalent of a Section 501 (c) (3) public charity as provided in Internal Revenue Service Regulations and Guideleines, or for other than "exempt purposes" within the meaning of § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in force or afterward amended, or as shall in the opinion of the Board of Directors, jeopardize the federal income tax exemption of the Corporation pursuant to § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as now in force or later amended; to receive, take title to, hold, and use the proceeds and income of stocks, bonds, obligations, or other securities of any corporation or corporations, domestic or foreign, but only for the foregoing purposes, or some of them; and, in general, to exercise any, all and every power for which a non-profit corporation organized under the applicable provisions of the Statutes of Florida for scientific, educational, and charitable purposes all for the public welfare, can be authorized to exercise, but only to the extent the exercise of such powers are in furtherance of exempt purposes.

- 2) No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in these Articles. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation (except that, if the Corporation so elects, it may make such expenditures in conformity with § 501(h) of the Internal Revenue Code) and the Corporation shall not participate in or intervene in (including publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of, or in opposition to, any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on: (a) by a corporation exempt from Federal Income Tax under § 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under § 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue Law).

- 3) Included among the educational and charitable purposes for which the Corporation is organized, as qualified and limited by subparagraphs (a) and (b) of this Article are the following:
- a. To provide grants and other financial support to organizations that qualify under Section 501 (c) 3 of the Internal Revenue Code, as now in force or hereafter amended, including equivalent foreign charities as stated above, which advance healthcare, advance education, advance social or public welfare and advance cultural programs, as well as any other charitable causes beneficial to the public at large.
- 4) To do all and everything necessary, suitable and proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any of the objects or the furtherance of any of the powers earlier set forth, either alone or in association with other corporations, firms, or individuals, and to do every other act or acts, thing or things, incidental or appurtenant to or growing out of or connected with the aforesaid objects or purposes of any part or parts thereof, provided the same are not inconsistent with the laws under which this corporation is organized.

Article V. DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS

The Corporation shall have no members.

The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by a Board of Directors, the number of members of which shall not be less than three (3) and the exact number shall be fixed by the bylaws of the Corporation. The manner in which the Directors shall be elected and appointed shall be as follows: At or before each annual meeting of the Directors, they shall elect such Directors to manage the affairs of the Corporation for the ensuing year or until their successors are duly appointed as provided for in the Bylaws; and those Directors shall be appointed from nominations submitted pursuant to the provisions of the Bylaws.
