Dear Applicant:

Why you are receiving this letter

We need more information to consider the determination letter request.

What you must do

Please provide the information requested and follow the submission instructions. You must submit your response by the due date above.

If you don't respond

If you don't respond to the Information Request by the due date, or don't provide all the requested information, we may close your case without making a determination. If so, we won't refund any user fee you paid, and you'll need to submit a new request and any applicable user fee payment if you want us to reconsider your request. Alternatively, if you haven't established that you meet the requirements for exemption for the subsection requested, we may make an adverse determination.

In addition, if you don't provide the requested information by the due date, you may lose your rights to get a declaratory judgment. Under Internal Revenue Code (IRC) Section 7428(b)(2), you must exhaust all administrative remedies available to you within the IRS before a court will issue a declaratory judgment about your exempt status. This requirement means you must take all reasonable steps in a timely manner to secure a determination under IRS procedures, including providing the information we need to act on your request. If you fail to timely provide the requested information, you may lose your rights to obtain a declaratory judgment under Section 7428.

Additional information

If you have questions or need additional time to respond, call me at the number at the top of this letter. If you have concerns after speaking with me, you can call my supervisor Stephen Seok at 513-975-6602.
