The following text is added at the end of Article III: Specifically, this corporation is founded for charitable religious purposes within the meaning of the IRS Code sec 501(c)(3), namely: to help young people of the Jewish Faith strengthen their connection to their ancestral religion, be they located in Florida or elsewhere in the US. It will implement religious educational programs for children, teens and young adults aiming to enrich their appreciation of their Jewish heritage while developing positive attitudes in a safe environment. It will maintain retreat centers, camping facilities, dining halls, accommodations, one or more synagogues and any other kind of location or structure that is deemed by the directors to be in fulfillment of this corporation's charitable and religious goals.

All the activities of this corporation will be driven by the principle that each individual child is an entire world with an infinite potential that can be awakened through unconditional love, support and personal attention. This corporation will strive to make the "off school time" experiences of young people into meaningful and enriching experiences which ignite the spark of Judaism that resides within every member of our faith community, allowing pride in our ancestral heritage, our shared history and our covenant with G-d to become the cornerstone their lives.

This corporation will carry out all its activities according to Orthodox Judaism as based on the Code of Jewish Law (the Shulchan Aruch) and the Jewish Law code of Rabbi Schneur Zalman of Liadi and subsequent works of Chabad sages, all as understood by its Rabbi, the incorporator Levi Plotkin. He has been appointed Rabbi according to Jewish law.

He is the ultimate authority in all matters pertaining to Ethics, Spirituality and Jewish Law, including the sole right to determine which matters should be regarded as matters of Ethics, Spirituality and Jewish Law and thus require his decision.

This corporation shall not, except to an insubstantial degree, engage in activities or exercise powers that are not in furtherance of its charitable religious purpose. This corporation will not distribute dividends to any persons, attempt to influence legislation or participate in political campaigns of any sort. In the event of this corporation's dissolution, all funds and remaining assets will be distributed by the directors to other 501(c)(3) recognized charitable corporations with similar goals.

The date of each amendment(s) adoption: _____, if other than the date this document was signed.

Effective date if applicable: _____
