ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF KING ACADEMY, INC.

The undersigned for the purpose of forming a corporation not for profit under the laws of Florida, pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes ("Florida Statutes"), hereby adopts the following Articles of Incorporation ("Articles"):

ARTICLE I NAME

Section 1.1 Name. The name of the corporation (the "Corporation") is King Academy, Inc.

ARTICLE II PRINCIPAL OFFICE

Section 2.1 Principal Office and Mailing Address of the Corporation. The mailing address and principal office of the Corporation are 1562 Oldenburg Drive, Jacksonville, FL 32218.

ARTICLE III PURPOSE

Section 3.1 Purpose. The Corporation is formed for the following purpose or purposes:

The Corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code (the "Code"), including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. Within the scope of the foregoing purposes, and not by way of limitation thereof, the Corporation is specifically dedicated to providing a continuum of educational advancement opportunities that encompasses preschool, primary, secondary, and tertiary educational programming; whereby the Corporation will operate one or more preschools, available to the general public, to provide care for children with a comprehensive educational program through a professional staff of qualified teachers thereby enabling working parents to be gainfully employed and by operating one or more public charter schools in the State of Florida and to undertake such activities as will further the general purposes described herein.

(a) Limitations. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, directors, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article II. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

- (b) Dissolution. After all liabilities and obligations of the Corporation in the process of winding up are paid, satisfied and discharged, upon the dissolution of the Corporation,
- i. Property held by the Corporation on a condition requiring return, transfer or conveyance because of the winding up or termination shall be returned, transferred or conveyed in accordance with that requirement; and
 - ii. The remaining property and assets of the Corporation shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or described by Section 170(c)(1) or (2) of the Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose, under a plan of distribution adopted in accordance with Chapter 617.1406 of the Florida Statutes.
 - iii. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes. A district court of the county in which the Corporation's principal office is located shall distribute to one or more organizations exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code or described by Section 170(c)(1) or (2) of the Code, the property of the Corporation remaining after a distribution of property under a plan of distribution under the Florida Statutes. The Court shall make such distribution in the manner the Court determines will best accomplish the general purposes for which the Corporation was organized.

ARTICLE IV MANNER OF ELECTION

Section 4.1 Corporate Affairs. The affairs of the Corporation shall be managed by its Board of Directors. The Board of directors shall have all the powers necessary or appropriate for the administration of the affairs of the Corporation.

Section 4.2 Election. Directors shall be elected in the manner set forth in the Bylaws of the Corporation.

Section 4.3 Number. The Corporation shall have three (3) Directors initially. The number of Directors may be increased or reduced from time to time, as provided by the Bylaws of the Corporation; however, the Corporation shall at all times have at least three (3) Directors.
