Amend Article III to read: The Anchored in Love Foundation, Inc (AILF) is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes, more specifically to: provide resources along with counseling, employment, mentorship and housing to youth as well as adults with mental disabilities, and other services that will promote their growth and transition into society. AILF will also hold events that will support the cognitive, physical, mental, and financial health of the community, including but not limited to, food and nutrition interventions, back-to-school initiatives, employment and financial coaching, leadership training, academic tutoring, and workshops to assist with the development of vocational, occupational, and life skills. Moreover, through affordable housing projects, real estate development, blight reduction, and promoting entrepreneurial initiatives, AILF will work to decrease the wealth, health, and educational inequalities that exist in low-to-moderate income communities.

Add: ARTICLE VIII – EXEMPTION REQUIREMENTS

Said corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, religious, educational, and scientific purposes, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code. No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article Third hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Add: ARTICLE IX – DISSOLUTION

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a Court of Competent Jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said Court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.
