amending article # III (page included)
adding articles IX & X (page included)

ARTICLE III: Purpose

3.1 Purpose Refocus Under Faith Path is a non-profit corporation and shall operate exclusively for educational and charitable purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future Federal tax code. 1. The specific purpose of this corporation is to:

- a. Provide an effective forum for interaction, problem solving and discussion throughout faith-based counseling.
- b. Provide education about holistic and spiritual approach for physical, mental and emotional healing to the one who attend and participate in our events.
- c. Provide a readily accessible mechanism for regional educational program development.
- d. Provide improved access to resources, including but not limited to talks, meetings, virtual interactions, and courses.
- e. Improve the standards and quality of holistic approaches through education.

To maximize our impact on current efforts, we may seek to collaborate with other non-profit organizations which fall under the 501(c)(3) section of the internal revenue code and are operated exclusively for educational and charitable purposes.

At times, per the discretion of the board of directors, we may provide internships or volunteer opportunities which will provide opportunities for involvement in said activities and program in order to have a greater impact for change.

3.2 Public Benefit Refocus Under Faith Path is designated as a public benefit corporation.

3.3 Non-profit Nature Refocus Under Faith Path is organized exclusively for charitable and educational purposes including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code. NO part of the net earnings of Refocus Under Faith Path shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by any organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Refocus Under Faith Path is not organized and shall not be operated for the private gain of any person. The property of the corporation is irrevocable dedicated to its educational and charitable purposes. No part of the assets, receipts, or net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributed to any individual. The corporation may, however, pay reasonable compensation for services rendered, and make other payments and distributions consistent with these Articles.

3.4 Personal Liability No officer or director of this corporation shall be personally liable for the debts or obligations of Refocus Under Faith Path of any nature whatsoever, nor shall any other property or assets of the officers or directors be subject to the payment of the debts or obligations of this corporation.

3.5 Dissolution Upon termination or dissolution of the Refocus Under Faith Path, any assets lawfully available for distribution shall be distributed to one (1) or more qualifying organizations described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or described in any corresponding provision of any successor statute) which organization or organizations have a charitable purpose which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to the terminating or dissolving corporation.

The organization to receive the assets of the Refocus Under Faith Path hereunder shall be selected by the discretion of a majority of the managing body of the Refocus Under Faith Path and if its members cannot so agree, then the recipient organization shall be selected pursuant to a verified petition in equity filed in a court of proper jurisdiction against the Refocus Under Faith Path by one (1) or more of its managing body which verified petition shall contain such statements as reasonably indicate the applicability of this section. The court upon a finding that this section is applicable shall select the qualifying organization or organizations to receive the assets to be distributed, giving preference if practicable to the organizations located within the State of Florida. In the event that the court shall find that this section is applicable but there is no qualifying organization known to it which has a charitable purpose, which, at least generally, includes a purpose similar to this corporation, then the court shall direct the distribution of its assets lawfully available for distribution to the Treasurer of the State of FL to be added to the general fund.

3.6 Prohibited Distributions No part of the net earnings, or properties of this corporation, on dissolution or otherwise, shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers or other private person or individual, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III, Section 3.01.

3.7 Restricted Activities No substantial part of the corporation's activities shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate in, or intervene (including the publishing or distribution of statements) in any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

3.8 Prohibited Activities Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on (I) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax as an organization described by Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (II) by a corporation, contribution to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

ARTICLE IX: Duration

2.1 Duration The period of duration of the corporation is perpetual.

ARTICLE X: Membership

Membership [Name of the Corporation] shall have no members. The management of the affairs of the corporation shall be vested in a board of directors, as defined in the corporation's bylaws.

The date of each amendment(s) adoption: March 23, 2023, if other than the date this document was signed.
