(attach additional sheets, if necessary). (Be specific)

The previous version of Art III remains in force. The following is placed before said Art III: This corporation is organized exclusively for charitable religious purposes within the meaning of the Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3), namely: To establish, maintain and operate one or more centers for Jewish spirituality and life improvement in or around N Miami Beach FL, and there to provide life coaching sessions, classes, seminars, inspirational events, worship services, visitations, celebrations, sacred meals and any other services which are seen as conducive to the well being of persons families or the community. It will carry out all its activities in keeping with the Torah-Halachic tradition contained in the Code of Jewish Law (Shulhan Aruch) and its commentaries, as understood by the founder, Dina Gurevich. The founder will seek out a known and respected rabbinic authority who will provide religious guidance as needed. This corporation will assist its participants, through counseling and other interventions, to reach their desired best. It will convey in conversations, ideas and guidance to promote the development of personal/emotional security, support structures and the confidence needed to gain desired states. People from disadvantaged situations will find feelings of self worth and hopefulness that will lead them to be successful in the world, and help others participate as assets to society. This corporation will not pay dividends of any kind, however, it will pay reasonable compensation for services provided, work done, resources purchased, or properties acquired in order to carry out its mission.

Upon the filing of these articles of amendment, the directors will be empowered to adopt bylaws and other documents, to appoint corporate officers and to authorize the president or the other officers to open bank accounts, file forms with government agencies and undertake of any other action required for the operation of this corporation. Such decisions may be taken through in person meetings, meetings through electronic media, or by written and signed (including e-signed consent.) Responses sent from an email belonging to a director shall be considered the equivalent of a written and signed consent. In the event of this corporations dissolution, the directors will - after clearing all debts and liabilities - distribute any remaining funds or assets to other corporations recognized as charities under section 501(c)(3) that have goals similar to those of this corporation.
