Dear Mr. Birch:

This letter will memorialize our telephone conversation today at approximately 12:00 p.m. in which we discussed the fact that the Orange County Republican Assembly, Inc. is a local chartered affiliate of the Florida Republican Assembly. While we may many times work in tandem with other organizations of Republicans; I would remind you that we are completely stand alone, independent, and not under the jurisdiction of any other Republican entity. In Florida I was elected state wide as President of the Florida Republican Assembly, Inc., and therefore there is no one higher for me to go to because I am that person.

The roots of the Florida Republican Assembly originate from the founding of our sister Republican Assembly, in California, in 1932. The assemblies have been ongoing and operational nationally and without interruption ever since.

Orange County Republican Assembly has been organized and chartered by the Florida Republican Assembly and therefore we approve their application for incorporation through your office.. Thank you so much for your time and courtesy in this matter and if I may be of further assistance to you please do not hesitate to contact me.

Most sincerely,

(s) Peter Kouracos
Peter Kouracos, State President
