Article III Purpose

This organization is organized exclusively for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, including, for such purposes, the making of distributions to organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or corresponding section of any future federal tax code (hereinafter "Internal Revenue Code").

No part of the net earnings of the organization shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, any of its members, trustees, officers or other private persons, except that the fellowship shall be authorized to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the exempt purposes. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Upon the dissolution of this organization, after paying or adequately providing for the debts and obligations of the organization, any remaining assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

This organization shall have perpetual duration.

The Officers of the Corporation shall be immune from liability to the fullest extent permitted by law, Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, no Director shall be personally liable to the Corporation for monetary damages for breach of duty or care or other duty as an officer; provided, however, this provision shall not eliminate or limit the liability of an officer for (a) any appropriation, in violation of his duties, of any business opportunity of the Corporation; (b) acts for omissions which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law; or (c) any transaction from which the officer derives an improper personal benefit.
