ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE
JANICE STEARNS CHARITABLE FOUNDATION, INC.
A Florida Corporation Not for Profit

The undersigned, REBECCA G. DOANE, RANDELL C. DOANE and H. BRYAN DOANE, desiring to form a charitable corporation under and by virtue of the provisions of Chapter 617 of the Florida Statutes, hereby makes, subscribes, and files these Articles for that purpose, as follows:

ARTICLE I Name

The name of this corporation shall be the JANICE STEARNS CHARITABLE FOUNDATION, INC.

ARTICLE II
Initial Registered Office and Agent,
Principal Office and Mailing Address

The initial registered office and principal office of this corporation shall be located at 2979 PGA Boulevard, Suite 201, Palm Beach Gardens, Florida 33410, and the name of the initial Registered Agent of this corporation at said address shall be Rebecca G. Doane. The mailing address of the corporation shall be 2979 PGA Boulevard, Suite 201, Palm Beach Gardens, Florida 33410.

ARTICLE III
Purposes and Powers

The corporation shall not provide for pecuniary gain or profit to its members. The principal purpose for which it is formed is to make periodic grants for charitable, religious, educational, scientific or literary purposes, testing for public safety, fostering national or international amateur sports competition and preventing cruelty to children or animals, to public charitable organizations that qualify as exempt organizations under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future law of the Internal Revenue Service or Department of Treasury).

The corporation shall have the power to acquire by gift, devise, bequest, purchase, lease or otherwise, and to hold, own, occupy, use, manage, improve, develop, maintain, lease, sell, mortgage, transfer, invest in or reinvest in, or otherwise deal with any real or personal property (tangible or intangible) of whatever kind and description and wherever situated, or with any estate or interest, legal or equitable, in the property, to borrow money and to make, accept, endorse, execute and issue promissory notes and other obligations in payment for property acquired or money borrowed; and to do all such other acts as are necessary or convenient to carry out the purposes set forth in these Articles.

Final control of and responsibility for the receipt, management and distribution of all funds by the corporation shall rest with the Board of who shall, among other duties, ensure that the corporation shall not be subject to tax under Sections 4942, 4943, 4944 and any other similar provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall be attempting to influence legislation by propaganda or otherwise, except that the corporation may make the election provided for in Section 501(h) of the United States Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law) with respect to influencing legislation, and, only if it so elects, may make lobbying or grassroots expenditures that do not normally exceed the ceiling amounts prescribed by Section 501(h)(2)(B) and (D) of the United States Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue law).

Notwithstanding any other provision of these Articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on:

by a corporation exempt from Federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law), or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986 (or the corresponding provision of any future United States Internal Revenue Law); or by a corporation formed pursuant to Chapter 617, Florida Statutes, with particular reference to Florida Statutes 617.0835 dealing with the prohibited activities of private foundations.

ARTICLE IV

Limitations on the Disposition of Corporate Assets and Net Earnings

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to, its members, directors, officers or other private persons, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III, supra.

ARTICLE V Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the organization, assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the organization is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

ARTICLE VI Qualification of Members and Advisors

The Members shall consist of the Incorporators named in Article VIII, infra, and the directors and officers who shall be nominated and appointed as provided in the Bylaws.
