LETTER OF RESIGNATION

Dear Family Freedom Endeavor,

This letter represents my official notice of resignation from my board position with the organization which is to be made final on the 30th day of November 2021.

I regretfully announce this decision due to the fact that as being appointed to hold the position of Treasurer, I still was not added on the bank account. The lack of communication and transparency is concerning to me. The recent transaction of 3 thousand dollar cash withdrawal was not approved by the board and in good conscience I can't hold the position of Treasurer without knowing what the money was used for. I was under the impression that we were a non profit organization and all donations were for litigation and reasonable travel expenses. I am for the organization being dissolved as we all agreed upon and donating remaining funds to a similar non-profit organization with no board member of the group receiving or entitled to any of the funds upon the dissolution of the organization.

It has been with great pleasure to be alongside the individuals at this organization and knowing that we ultimately want to stand for freedom against unconstitutional mandates.

Sincerely,

Carmen Bergollo
