ARTICLE III:PURPOSE:

The corporation is dedicated to transforming the lives of highly under-resourced children by providing them with the psychosocial, academic and workforce-readiness support that they need to succeed in the 21st-century economy. The corporation may carry out its purpose directly or by making gifts, grants, or other payments to qualifying organizations within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, allowed under the laws of the State of Florida, and in such a manner that is consistent with the corporation's qualification as a tax-exempt organization under the provisions of the Internal Revenue Code.

TAX EXEMPTION:

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, or scientific purposes within the meaning of Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Notwithstanding any other provisions of these Articles, the corporation shall not conduct or carry on any activities not permitted to be conducted or carried on by any organization exempt under Section 501 (c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and its Regulations as they exist or as they may hereafter exist in the future, or by a corporation contribution to which are deductible under Section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.

DISSOLUTION:

In the event of the dissolution of the corporation, the board of directors shall, after paying or making provisions of the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, distribute all of the assets of the corporation exclusively to one or more Organizations then described in Sections 170(c)(2), 501(c)(3), 2055(a)(2) and 2522 (a)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code, having purposes substantially similar to those of the corporation (except that no private foundation as defined by Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be a recipient) or to one or more units or agencies of federal, state or local government to be exclusively used for public purposes, as the board of directors shall determine.

ARTICLE XI, ARTICLE XI 1 and ARTICLE XI 1.1 - See additional sheet.

ACTIVITIES AND RESTRICTIONS

Section 1: No dividends, liquidating dividends or distributions shall be declared or paid by the corporation to any private individual, officer or director of the corporation.

Section 2: No substantial part of the activities of the corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, unless by appropriate election a greater part is permitted without jeopardizing the corporation's exemption under Section 501(c)(3). The Corporation shall neither participate nor intervene in any political campaign on behalf of (or in opposition) to any candidate for public office, including the publication or distribution of any statements.

Section 3: No part of the net earnings or net income of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of any private individual, officer or director of the corporation; provided, however, that such a person may receive reasonable compensation for personal services rendered, or reimbursement for reasonable expenses incurred, which are necessary to carry out the exempt purposes of the corporation.

Section 4: Whenever the corporation is a private foundation as defined by Section 509(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, the income of the corporation shall be distributed at such time and in such a manner as to not subject it to tax under Section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code, and the corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing, retain any business holdings, make any taxable expenditures as defined in Sections 4941 (d), 4943(c), and 4945(d), respectively, of the Internal Revenue Code, make any investments which subject the corporation to tax under Section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code, or make any indemnification which would give rise to a penalty excise tax under Chapter 42 of the Internal Revenue Code.

MEMBERS

The corporation shall have no members.

AMENDMENT

These Articles may be amended by the directors of the corporation by a vote of a majority (51 %) of the number of directors in office at the time that the amendment is adopted, provided that no amendment shall substantially change the original purpose of the corporation.
