Section 6.2 Election and Term. The President/Chair of the Board shall be appointed by, and shall serve at the discretion of, the Board of Directors; all other officers shall be nominated, elected and serve at the discretion of the Board of Directors; provided, however, the initial Officers, if any, shall be appointed by the Incorporator. Officers shall serve for a one (1) year term, or until their earlier death, resignation, removal, retirement, or disqualification. An officer may serve successive terms unless otherwise decided by the Board of Directors.

The President/Chair may resign by providing written notice to the remaining Directors. The President/Chair of the Board may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in their judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served thereby, but such removal (i) shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed, and (ii) shall not affect the person's position as a Director except in the event of a removal for cause. Any other officer may be removed by the Board of Directors whenever in its judgment the best interests of the Corporation would be served thereby, but such removal shall be without prejudice to the contract rights, if any, of the person so removed.

Section 6.4 Vacancies. The Board of Directors may fill any vacancy occurring in any office and may, in its discretion, leave unfilled for such period, as it may determine, any offices. vacant. At the discretion of the Board, the Vice President may be made an ex officio member of any standing committee.

The Board of Directors may give general authority to any other officer to affix the seal of the Corporation and to attest the affixing by such officer's signature. The Assistant Secretary, or if there shall be more than one, the Assistant Secretaries in the order determined by the Board of Directors, shall, in the absence or disability of the Secretary, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Secretary and shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe.

Section 6.8 Treasurer and Assistant Treasurers. The Treasurer shall (a) be responsible for the custody of the corporate funds and securities; (b) keep full and accurate accounts of receipts and disbursements in books belonging to the Corporation; (c) deposit all monies and other valuable effects in the name and to the credit of the Corporation as may be ordered by the Board of Directors, taking proper vouchers for such disbursements; and (d) render to the Board of Directors, at its Annual Meeting or when the Board of Directors so requires, an account of the Corporation. If required by the Board of Directors, the Treasurer shall give the Corporation a bond in such sums and with such surety or sureties as shall be satisfactory to the Board of Directors for the faithful performance of the duties of the office of Treasurer and for the restoration to the Corporation in case of death, resignation, retirement, or removal from office, of all books, papers, vouchers, money, and other property of whatever kind in the possession or under the control of the Treasurer belonging to the Corporation. The Assistant Treasurer, or if there shall be more than one, the Assistant Treasurers in the order determined by the Board of Directors, shall in the absence or disability of the Treasurer, perform the duties and exercise the powers of the Treasurer and shall perform such other duties and have such other powers as the Board of Directors may from time to time prescribe.

ARTICLE VII INDEMNIFICATION

The Corporation shall, to the fullest extent permitted by the Act, indemnify all persons whom it may indemnify pursuant thereto so long as such persons have conducted themselves in good faith and reasonably believed their conduct not to be opposed to the Corporation's best interests.

Section 7.2 Insurance. The Corporation may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any person who is or was a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation, or who, while a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Corporation is or was serving at the request of the Corporation as a Director, officer, partner, trustee, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise against liability asserted against or incurred by him in that capacity or arising from his or her status as such, whether or not the Corporation would have the power to indemnify him against the same liability under Section 617.0831 of the Act, as amended.

ARTICLE VIII DISSOLUTION

Section 8.1 Procedure for Dissolution. The Corporation may be dissolved, and its business and affairs terminated upon a vote of at least two-thirds of the Directors in office at the time the dissolution is approved at a meeting of which written notice mailed to each Director shall be given at least ten (10) days previously thereto. Such notice shall state the purpose of the proposed meeting. After dissolution is approved, articles of dissolution shall be filed with the Secretary of State.

Section 8.2 Distribution of Corporate Assets. Upon dissolution of the Corporation and after all its debts and expenses have been paid, all its assets which may be legally so distributed shall be distributed in conformity with these Bylaws and for the purposes set forth herein and in the Articles of Incorporation. All remaining assets of the Corporation shall be turned over to one or more organizations which are governmental entities or exempt organizations described in I.R.C. Section 501(c).

ARTICLE IX MISCELLANEOUS

Section 9.1 Compensation and Other Payments; Regulatory Compliance.

(b) The Board of Directors shall determine the compensation, if any, to be paid to the President/Chair of the Board. The compensation to be paid to other officers of the Corporation shall be fixed by the Board of Directors (except that the Board may delegate to any officer or committee the power to fix such compensation). It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors and its individual members, to enforce payment of each such amount disallowed. In lieu of payment by the officer, subject to the determination of the Directors, proportionate amounts may be withheld from any future compensation payments until the amount owed to the Corporation has been recovered.

Section 9.2 Disclosure and Reporting. The Corporation shall comply with all disclosure and reporting requirements applicable to the Corporation including filing Internal Revenue Service Form 990 which requires that the Corporation disclose information regarding the compensation and other financial arrangements with its officers, Directors, trustees, key employees and independent contractors.

All contracts, deeds, mortgages, pledges, promissory notes, security documents, transfers, and other written instruments binding upon the Corporation shall be executed on behalf of the Corporation by the President/Chair of the Board or such officer or agent as the Board of Directors may designate from time to time. Any such instrument required to be given under the seal of the Corporation may be sealed and attested by the Secretary or any Assistant Secretary of the Corporation.

Section 9.4 Checks and Drafts. Checks and drafts of the Corporation shall be signed by the treasurer or such officer or officers or such other employees or person as the Board of Directors from time to time may designate. The Board of Directors may provide by resolution for the authority of officers, employees, and other persons to deal with banks and other financial institutions on behalf of the Corporation.

Section 9.9 Interpretation. In the interpretation of these Bylaws, wherever reference is made to the I.R.C., the Act or any other statute, or to any Section thereof, such reference shall be construed to mean such code, statute or Section thereof, and the regulations thereunder, as the case may be, as heretofore or hereafter amended or supplemented or as superseded by laws covering equivalent subject matter.
