ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF SEABREEZE GIRLS SOCCER BOOSTER, INC.
(A NOT FOR PROFIT CORPORATION)

The undersigned, Trisha L. Dellinger, acting as incorporator of a corporation under the laws of the state of Florida adopts the following articles of incorporation:

Article I: Name and Address

The name of the corporation is Seabreeze Girls Soccer Booster, Inc., a Florida not for profit corporation. The principal place of business is 2700 North Oleander Avenue, Daytona Beach, FL 32118 and the mailing address is 1655 N. Clyde Morris Blvd., Suite 1, Daytona Beach, FL 32117

Article II: Detailed Description of Purposes

- (a) The specific and primary purposes for which this corporation is formed are as follows:
Promotion of girl's high school soccer program.
- (b) The general purposes for which this corporation is formed are as follows:
 - (1) To acquire or otherwise, own, and enjoy in fee simple, or otherwise, any personal, real or mixed property necessary for the uses and purposes of this corporation; and to dispose of the same at the pleasure of the corporation and for the users and purposes for which this corporation is formed.
 - (2) To enter into all lawful contracts and obligations essential or convenient for the transaction of the affairs of the corporation and to borrow money and issue notes, bills and evidence of indebtedness or mortgage, as the corporation may deem advisable, within the limits approved by its bylaws, and do any other thing necessary, suitable and proper for the accomplishment of any objects specified here or which may at any time appear conducive to or expedient for the interests or benefits of this corporation or its members.
 - (3) To expend monies received, collected or earned by this corporation from all sources for the payment and discharge of all costs and obligations incurred by the corporation in carrying out the purposes for which this corporation is formed.
 - (4) To do all lawful things and acts which this corporation at any time shall, in the discretion of the directors deem to be in the best interest of the members and to pay all costs and expenses in connection with these acts.

Article III: Duration

The corporation shall have perpetual duration.

Article IV: Tax Exemption Requirements

- (a) The corporation is organized and operated exclusively for the purposes set forth herein.
- (b) Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Internal Revenue Code.
- (c) No substantial part of the activities of this corporation shall consist of carrying on propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the corporation shall not participate or intervene in any political campaign (including the publishing or distribution of statements on behalf of any candidate for public office).

Article V: Restrictions on Private Foundations

Notwithstanding any other provision in these Articles, if this corporation is deemed or determined to be a "private foundation" within the meaning of section 509 of the Internal Revenue Code, then this corporation shall be subject to the following limitations and restrictions:

- (a) The corporation shall distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by section 4942 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- (b) The corporation shall not engage in any act of self-dealing as defined in section 4941(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- (c) The corporation shall not retain any excess business holdings as defined in section 4943(c) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- (d) The corporation shall not make any investment in such manner as to subject it to tax under section 4944 of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.
- (e) The corporation shall not make any taxable expenditures as defined in section 4945(d) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

Article VI: Registered Office and Agent

The street address of the initial registered office of the corporation is: 1655 N. Clyde Morris Blvd., Suite 1, Daytona Beach, Florida 32117. The name of the original registered agent at such address is Trisha L. Dellinger.

Article VII: Board of Directors

The powers of this corporation shall be exercised, its property controlled, and its affairs conducted, by a Board of Directors. The number of directors of the corporation shall be five (5); provided, however, that the number of directors can be changed by a bylaw duly adopted pursuant to the bylaws of this corporation. The directors named in these articles as the first Board of Directors shall hold office until the first meeting of members as set forth in the bylaws.

Directors elected at the first annual meeting and at all times thereafter shall serve for a term of one year until the first annual meeting of members following the election of directors and until the qualification of their successors in office.

Annual meetings shall be held on the third (3rd) Thursday in August of each year at the principal office of the corporation or as such other places as the Board of Directors may designate from time to time by resolution.

Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors under any provision of law may be taken without a meeting if all the members of the Board individually or collectively consent in writing to such action. Such written consent or consents shall be filed with the minutes of the proceeding of the Board. Such action by written consent will have the same force and effect as if taken by unanimous vote of the directors. Any certificate or other document filed under any provision of law relating to actions so taken must state that the action was taken by unanimous written consent of the Board of Directors without a meeting and that the articles of incorporation and bylaws of this corporation authorize the directors to so act. Such a statement shall be prima facie evidence of such authority.

Article XI: Bylaws

Subject to the limitations contained in the bylaws and any limitations set forth in the laws of the state of Florida concerning corporation action that must be authorized or approved by the members of the corporation, the bylaws of this corporation may be made, altered, rescinded, added to, or new bylaws may be adopted either by a resolution of the Board of Directors or by following the procedures set forth for such action in the bylaws.

Article XII: Property and Profits

The property of this corporation is irrevocably dedicated to the purposes set forth in Article III herein and no part of the net income or assets of this corporation shall ever inure to the benefit of any director, officer or member thereof or to the benefit of any private person, except that the corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purpose or purposes set forth in Article III herein.

Article XIII: Distribution Upon Dissolution

Upon the dissolution of the corporation, its assets shall be distributed for one or more exempt purpose(s) within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the corporation is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations, as such court shall determine, that are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article XIV: Amendments

Amendments to these articles of Incorporation may be proposed by a resolution adopted by the Board of Directors and presented to a quorum of members for their vote. Amendments may be adopted by a vote of a majority of a quorum of members of the corporation.

Article XV: Limited Liability of Directors and Officers

The officers and directors shall not be individually liable for the corporation's debts or other liabilities, and the private property of such individuals shall be exempt from any corporate debts or liabilities. The power of indemnification under the laws of Florida shall not be denied or limited by the bylaws.

I, the undersigned, being the incorporator of this corporation for the purpose of forming this nonprofit charitable corporation under the laws of Florida have executed these articles of incorporation on August 31st, 2021.
