RE: Nonprofit Incorporation Filing for Impact Poland, Inc.

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed please find documents (3 copies) for incorporating a new nonprofit corporation in Florida—Impact Poland. The forms included are for Articles of Incorporation and Articles of Amendment.

The reason both forms are included at this time is because the organization will seek to obtain 501(c)(3) status from the IRS and specific language is required by the IRS to be included in an organization's Articles of Incorporation.

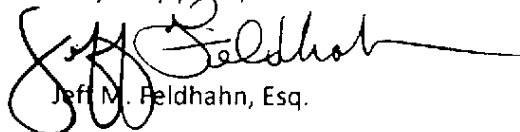

Unfortunately, neither the online filing process nor the paper incorporation form permits the inclusion of the additional language.

In a call with your office, a representative told me that you all are aware of this limitation in your filing system. She instructed me to file Articles of Amendment (with the IRS required language being added) at the same time the Articles of Incorporation are filed and that it will then become one filing. Your office also told me that I would not need to pay a separate filing fee for the Articles of Amendment since this filing will be considered as only one filing.

Enclosed is a check in the amount of $78.75 in payment of the filing fee and obtaining a certified copy of the Articles.

Please contact me if further information is needed.

Very truly yours,

Jeff M. Feldhahn, Esq.

Article III -- Purpose

The corporation is organized exclusively for charitable, educational, and religious purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law), including, but not limited to raising support and volunteers from individuals, groups, churches, and corporations to encourage, fund and support Christian ministry in Poland, and to make distributions to or for the use of organizations exempt at the time under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law).

Article IX – Restrictions and Dissolution

No part of the net earnings of the corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the organization shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in the purpose clause hereof. No substantial part of the activities of the organization shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the organization shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of this document, the organization shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by any organization exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or (b) by an organization, contributions to which are deductible under section 170 (c) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code, or corresponding section of any future federal tax code.

The Board of Directors may cease corporate activities and dissolve and liquidate the corporation, by two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors. Upon the dissolution of the organization, the Board of Directors shall pay or make provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the corporation, and shall thereafter dispose of all of the assets of the corporation (i) exclusively for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (or the corresponding provision of any future United States internal revenue law), in such manner as the Board of Directors shall determine, (ii) or to such organization or organizations organized and operated exclusively for charitable, educational, religious, literary, or scientific purposes as shall at the time qualify as an exempt organization or organizations under Section 501(c)(3), and shall at the time be described in Section 170(c)(2) of such Code, as the Board of Directors shall determine. If any such assets are not so disposed of, the appropriate court of the county in which the principal Florida office of the corporation is then located shall dispose of such assets exclusively for the purposes stated in Article III, and exclusively to such organization or organizations which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes and qualify under Section 501(c)(3).
