ARTICLE IX
INDEMNIFICATION

9.1. Indemnity. To the extent permitted by law, the Association shall indemnify any Person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending or contemplated action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Association) by reason of the fact that he, she or it is or was a Director, employee, officer or agent of the Association, against expenses (including attorney's fees and appellate attorney's fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him, her or it in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he, she or it acted in good faith and in a manner he, she or it reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the Association; and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he, she or it had no reasonable cause to believe his, her or its conduct was unlawful; except, that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any claim, issue or matter as to which such Person shall have been adjudged to be liable for gross negligence or willful misfeasance or malfeasance in the performance of his, her or its duty to the Association unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine, upon application, that despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such Person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses which such court shall deem proper. The termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the Person did not act in good faith and in a manner which he reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interest of the Association; and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he, she or it had no reasonable cause to believe that his, her or its conduct was unlawful.

9.2. Expenses. To the extent that a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Association has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Article 9.1 above, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he, she or it shall be indemnified against expenses (including attorney's fees and appellate attorney's fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him, her or it in connection therewith.

9.3. Approval. Any indemnification under Article 9.1 above (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Association only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the Director, officer, employee or agent is proper in the circumstances because he, she or it has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Article 9.1 above. Such determination shall be made (a) by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding, or (b) if such quorum is not obtainable, or, even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested Directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or (c) by a majority of the Members.

9.4. Advances. Expenses incurred in defending a civil or criminal action, suit or proceeding may be paid by the Association in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding as authorized by the Board of Directors in the specific case upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Directors, officer, employee or agent to repay such amount unless it shall ultimately be determined that he, she or it is entitled to be indemnified by the Association as authorized in this Article.

9.5. Miscellaneous. The indemnification provided by this Article shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under any Bylaw, agreement, vote of Members or otherwise, both as to action in his, her or its official capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a Person who has ceased to be a Director, officer, employee, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors and administrators of such a Person.

9.6. Insurance. The Association shall have the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Person who is or was a Director, officer, employee or agent of the Association, or is or was serving at the request of the Association as a Director, officer, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise against any liability asserted against him, her or it and incurred by him, her or it in any such capacity, or arising out of his, her or its status as such, whether or not the Association would have the power to indemnify him, her or it against such liability under the provisions of this Article.

ARTICLE X BYLAWS

The Bylaws of the Association shall be adopted by the initial Board of Directors and may be altered, amended or rescinded in accordance with the provisions thereof.

ARTICLE XI AMENDMENTS

by a majority of the Board of Directors or by not less than one-third (1/3) of the voting interests of all Members of the Association. A resolution adopting the proposed amendment must then be approved by not less than sixty-six and two-thirds percent (66 2/3%) of the voting interests of all Members of the Association. In the alternative, an amendment may be made by an agreement signed and acknowledged by all Unit Owners in the manner required for the execution of a deed, and such amendment shall be effective when recorded in the Public Records of Bay County, Florida. However, notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, no amendment shall be made or be valid which shall eliminate, modify, prejudice, abridge or otherwise adversely affect any rights, benefits, privileges, interests or priorities granted or reserved to the Developer, the Owner of the Office Unit or Institutional Mortgagees of Units without the consent of said Developer, the Owner of the Office Unit and Institutional Mortgagees, as applicable, in each instance.

No amendment shall be made that is in conflict with the Act or the Declaration.
