ARTICLE III: PURPOSE

The Corporation shall be an independent, non-profit, tax exempt, charitable corporation organized primarily for the purpose of empowering women experiencing poverty or homelessness by providing housing, food, and/or educational opportunities. The Corporation may serve additional non-profit purposes as determined appropriate by the Directors of the Corporation, as long as such additional purposes do not result in the loss of qualification as a tax-exempt organization as defined by Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3).

ARTICLE VIII: ADDITIONAL PROVISIONS

The Corporation is empowered to exercise all rights and powers conferred by the laws of the State of Florida upon non-profit corporations, including, but without limitation thereon, to receive gifts, devises, bequests and contributions in any form, including contributions in kind of real estate, and to hold, use, apply, sell, invest and/or reinvest the principal and/or income therefrom and/or distribute funds for the purposes set forth in these Articles of Incorporation.

1. Restrictions on Distributions. No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of or be distributable to the Corporation's Members, Directors, officers or private individuals, but the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes of the Corporation.

2. Restrictions on Activities. It is intended that the Corporation shall have the status of a corporation which is exempt from federal income taxation under Section 501(a) of the Code as an organization described in Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. These Articles shall be construed accordingly, and all powers and activities of the Corporation shall be limited accordingly. The Corporation shall not carry on propaganda or otherwise attempt to influence legislation to such extent as would result in loss of its exemption from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code. No activity of the Corporation may consist of participating in or intervening in (including the publishing or distributing of statements) any political campaigning on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office.

3. Members. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall constitute the membership of the Corporation.

4. Dissolution. Upon dissolution of the Corporation, the Board of Directors shall, after paying or making provisions for the payment of all the liabilities of the Corporation, distribute all of the assets of the Corporation exclusively for charitable, educational or religious purposes to such exempt organization or organizations which are exempt under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code which are organized and operated for purposes similar to those of the Corporation. Any of such assets not so distributed shall be distributed by the Probate Court of the 20th Judicial Circuit Court of Florida, exclusively for the aforesaid purposes of the Corporation or to such qualified organization or organizations as said Court shall determine.

5. Election of Directors. The Corporation will elect and appoint directors as provided in the Bylaws of the Corporation.
